

successors was duly proved on the 7th day of November, 1956, in the District Probate Registry at Winchester):

"And whereas the said John Chaloner Chute and John Durnford Barker desire to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Lord Bishop of Winchester for the time being and consent to this Scheme (in testimony whereof they have executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Sherborne Saint John aforesaid:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Alwyn, Lord Bishop of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Alwyn, Lord Bishop of Winchester, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Lord Bishop of Winchester for the time being."

And Whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

At the Court at Goodwood House, the 31st day of July, 1957.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 17th day of April, 1957, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has signed the Scheme), for authorising the taking down of the remains and the sale of the site and materials of the church of Saint Hilda in the parish of Saint Hilda, Old Trafford, in the diocese of Manchester.

"SCHEME.

"Whereas the church of Saint Hilda in the parish of Saint Hilda, Old Trafford (hereinafter called 'the said Church') has suffered extensive war damage and has ceased to be used for the purposes of Divine Service:

"And whereas it is anticipated that by a subsequent Scheme to be made in pursuance of the said Measures provision will be made for the erection of a new church within a benefice affected by such Scheme:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Church Commissioners, do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council as follows, that is to say:—

"(1) As soon as conveniently may be after the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the remains of the said church shall be taken down and the materials and site thereof, together with any ground annexed thereto and necessary for the use and enjoyment thereof, shall be sold and disposed of by us, the said Church Commissioners, at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient, subject to the conditions and restrictions imposed by the said Measures.

"(2) The net proceeds to arise from such sale or sales, after payment of the expenses attendant thereon and upon the taking down of the remains of the church and all other expenses incidental to these matters, shall be held by us pending provision for the user thereof in the subsequent Scheme hereinbefore mentioned or in any Scheme supplemental hereto."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 20th day of June, 1957, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Church Patronage Act, 1870, and of the Acts therein mentioned, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Monkleigh in the County of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

"SCHEME.

"Whereas we are satisfied that George Augustus Saltren (Willett of Kitts Hayes, Colaton Raleigh, Sidmouth, in the County of Devon, Commander (Retired) in Your Majesty's Royal Navy, is the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice:

"And whereas the said George Augustus Saltren Willett desires to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Bishop of Exeter for the time being and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof he has executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of Exeter (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Robert, Bishop of Exeter, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Exeter for the time being.

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.
