

under the style of 'The United Benefice of Brandon Ferry with Wangford, Santon and Santon Downham', but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the Reverend John Fleetwood Boodle if he is then incumbent of the said benefice of Brandon Ferry with Wangford shall, with his consent (testified by his signature hereto), be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"3. Parsonage House. Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Brandon Ferry with Wangford shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"4. Patronage. In every series of four successive turns of presentation to be made to the united benefice after the union has taken effect the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food (being one of the patrons of the benefice of Santon with Santon Downham) shall have the first turn, the patrons of the benefice of Brandon Ferry with Wangford shall have the second and fourth turns and the Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich for the time being (being the other patron of the benefice of Santon with Santon Downham) shall have the third turn.

"5. Provision for a curate or other assistance. Upon the union taking effect the incumbent shall, in order to assist him in performing the duties of the united benefice, employ a curate or such other clerical or lay assistance as the Bishop of the said diocese may from time to time direct."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 23rd day of August, 1957.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 15th day of August, 1957, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Church Patronage Act, 1870, and of the Acts therein mentioned, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Cheriton with Newington in the County of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"SCHEME.

"Whereas we are satisfied that William Drake Brockman of Broom Cottage, Bargrove Avenue, Boxmoor, Hemel Hempstead in the County of Hertford, Gentleman, as tenant for life upon the Settlement Trusts mentioned or referred to in a Vesting Assent dated the 18th May, 1932, and made between Canon Alleyne Hall Hall of the first part, the said Alleyne Hall Hall and George Arthur Munro Levett and Benjamin Arkle of the second part and the said William Drake Brockman of the third part, is the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice:

"And whereas the said William Drake Brockman desires to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof he has executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Geoffrey Francis, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Geoffrey Francis, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury and his successors in the same Archbishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.
