

form as we shall prescribe; and in the event of failure by the incumbent or sequestrators to produce such accounts or documents we shall have all legal remedies for enforcing production thereof.

“SCHEDULE.

“For the purpose of this Scheme the endowment income of the united benefice shall, without prejudice to the power of decision vested in us by virtue of Section 18 of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, if any question shall arise, be computed in accordance with our Central Register of Benefice Income, that is to say, by including:—

“(1) all gross secured income payable by us and any other person or body, and (2) all gross income received from ground rents, chief rents or other fixed charges, other glebe rents and any letting of the parsonage house or a formally divided portion thereof, and by deducting therefrom:—

“(1) the rates payable on the parsonage house if occupied by the incumbent,

“(2) the rent and rates payable on any house occupied by the incumbent other than the parsonage house,

“(3) the annual assessment charged upon the incumbent under the Ecclesiastical Dilapidations Measures, 1923 to 1951, in respect of the benefice,

“(4) the rates payable on the glebe,

“(5) the cost of collecting glebe rents,

“(6) any tithe annuity, rentcharge or fee farm rent charged upon the glebe,

“(7) any other outgoings in respect of the glebe,

“(8) any charge upon the benefice income in favour of another benefice or any lay person,

“(9) any payment to a curate or lay worker out of the benefice income,

“(10) the annual payments in respect of capital and interest in respect of any mortgage of the benefice income,

“(11) any part of the benefice income diverted to the diocesan stipends fund pursuant to an Order under Section 12 of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949.”

And Whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And Whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of October, 1957.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 4th day of October, 1957, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Church Patronage Act, 1870, and of the Acts therein mentioned, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Friskney in the County and diocese of Lincoln.

“SCHEME.

“Whereas we are satisfied that Roger Aubrey Baskerville Mynors of 14A, Merton Street, in the City and County of Oxford, and Graham Douglas Heath of 1, The Sanctuary, Westminster, in the County of Middlesex are the patrons or persons entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice:

“And whereas the said Roger Aubrey Baskerville Mynors and the said Graham Douglas Heath desire to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Bishop of Lincoln for the time being and are consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof they have executed the same):

“And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Kenneth, Bishop of Lincoln, (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Kenneth, Bishop of Lincoln, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Lincoln for the time being.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.
