

Friendship of Boston, William Wind Master, from Newfoundland. Her Majesty's Ship the Rochester brought in here this day a French Prize of 26 Guns and 250 Tuns, laden with Wine, Oyl and other Goods, from Cadiz.

Westminster, June 10. Her Majesty having been graciously pleased to Call by Her Writ, Thomas Parker, of the Inner-Temple, Esq; Queen's Serjeant; Henry Chesham, of Grays-Inn, Esq; James Grove, of the Inner-Temple, Esq; William Bonister Esq; St. John Brodericke Esq; and Joseph Weld Esq; all of the Middle-Temple; John Barnes, of Grays-Inn, Esq; Henry Lloyd, of the Inner-Temple, Esq; Richard Wynn Esq; Richard Richardson Esq; both of the Middle-Temple; John Hoo Esq; and John Chesham Esq; both of the Inner-Temple; John Birch, of the Middle-Temple, Esq; John Conyns, of Lincoln's Inn, Esq; and Thomas Webb, of the Middle-Temple, Esq; to take upon them the State and Degree of Serjeant at Law; they accordingly appeared at the Chancery-Bar on the 8th Instant, where they took the usual Oaths, and delivered to my Lord Keeper a Ring for Her Majesty, and another for his Royal Highness the Prince of Denmark, with this Motto, [Moribus, Armis, Legibus.] And this day, being conducted by their respective Societies to Gray's-Inn, they performed in the Hall, before all the Judges, the Ceremony of Counting; and having had their Coats put on, they walked from thence, being clothed in Parry-coloured Robes, and accompanied by a great many Gentlemen of the Long Robe out of the several Societies, and all their Officers, to Westminster-Hall, where, at the Bar of the Court of Common-Pleas, they again Counted, and gave Rings to all the Judges, Serjeants and Officers, in the usual manner; and afterwards returned to the Middle-Temple-Hall, where they entertained divers of the Nobility, the Judges, Serjeants, and a great number of other Persons of Quality, with a splendid Dinner, and with the exactest Order, amidst so great a number of Guests and Spectators.

The Counterfeiting of Powers to receive Seamen's Wages being grown so frequent a Practice, it is thought fit to give this publick Notice, that John Chettle, of St. Dunstons Steepy, Stocking-maker, was (at the Sessions held at the Old-Baily, London,) on Thursday the 24th of May last, convicted on three several Indictments for forging false Powers to receive Seamen's Wages, and was fined 20 Nobles for each Offence, and to stand three times on the Pillory, viz. at the Admiralty-Office, the Navy-Office, and the Pay-Office.

Whereas it has been made evident to the Supervisor and Governors of the Chest at Chatham, that several Seamen have made their Application to Mrs. Elit and Mrs. Druitt of Chatham, and given them considerable Sums of Money, to make an Interest for them to have their Business done there; The Supervisor and Governors of the said Chest do hereby give Notice to all Seamen that have received any Hurt in Her Majesty's Service, or are already settled Pensioners, that when they have any thing to do at the said Chest, it is expected they repair directly to them, when together, on the first Tuesday of every Month; and that they make no Application to any private Person whatsoever; at which publick Meetings they shall have Justice done them without any Fee or Reward, with all possible Dispatch. And they do further give Notice, that if any Seaman that has given Money to any Person belonging to the said Chest, or to any body for them, to get their Allowance settled or enlarged, or for Discharge of their Business, will come to them and discover it; they shall not only have their Pensions continued, but shall have their Monies again; But if they refuse to come in and make such Discovery, and it be otherwise found out, such their Pensions shall not only be suspended, but the Person shall be prosecuted with the utmost Severity according to Law. And if any Person that can make any considerable Discovery of such corrupt Practices, who are not Pensioners, will come in and prove the same, they shall be well rewarded by the said Supervisor and Governors.

The Trustees for Exchanging Exchequer Bills do hereby give Notice, to the Subscribers to the Eleventh Contract or Agreement for Circulating Exchequer Bills, that on Monday the 18th of this Instant June they will repay unto the said Subscribers, or such as shall be lawfully deputed by them, the Five Pounds per Cent. deposited on the said Contract, upon delivering up the respective Receipts signed by the Trustees for the same.
