ready arrived with the Detachment of Foot under his Command. Advice came from Monsieur d'Auverquerque, That the Enemy's Forces were preparing to retire from before Liege, and had for that purpose begun to put their Artillery on board several Boats to be sent up the Maese. His Grace thereupon thought fit to make a halt with the Horse on the 26th; but the Detachment of Foot continued their March. That day General Churchill joined us, with the rest of the Foot. The 27th his Grace, having left Orders for all the Troops to advance by easier Marches, came away from Duren, and arrived here about noon; He was received with a triple Discharge of the Artillery, and great Expressions of Joy from all the People. His Grace alighted at the Lodgings of the Deputies of the States General, who went with him to the Camp, where they dined with Monsieur d'Auverquerque. We found that the Enemy were retired to Tongeren; whereupon his Grace concerted with the Generals to pass the Jaar the first of next Month, and march directly towards them; but it being probable that they will immediately retire into their Lines, our heavy Cannon is already embarking, in order to retake Huy, if the Enemy decline engaging us. In the evening his Grace returned hither. This morning the Duke of Marlborough received an Express from Coblentz with Advice, That the Forces of the Elector Palatine, and those of Westphalia, had abandoned Trier.

Hague, June 30. N. S. On the 26th past the Enemy's Forces commanded by the Elector of Bavaria and the Marshal de Villeroy retired from before Liege, and the next day they encamped near Tongeren, into which Place they put a Garison of 500 Men. That day his Grace the Duke of Marlborough arrived at Mastricht, where the Detachment commanded by the Earl of Orkney was expected last night; and the rest of his Army was to come up this day. A considerable Train of Artillery was lately sent from Delft towards our Army. Our last Letters from Flanders give an Account, That Baron Spar was encamped with the Body of the Forces of this State along the Canal that goes to Ghent. The Letters we received this day from Paris say, That, according to their Advices from Madrid, the Confederate Army was marched from Albuquerque, and having passed the River Guadiana, not without Opposition, was advanced towards Badajos; And that they had a Confirmation of the Conspiracy against the Duke of Anjou, wherein the Marquis of Leganez was said to be principally concerned, who was therefore carried Prisoner to Pampeluna.

Plimouth, June 19. Sir George Bing sailed hence yesterday with a Squadron of Her Majesty's Ships to the Westward. The same day the St. Christopher of Amsterdam brought in here as Prize a French Privateer of 8 Guns.

Whereas in a Pamphlet lately published, Entituled, The Experiment; or, The Shortest Way with the Dissenters Exemplified, &c. it is confidently affirmed, That Abraham Gill was admitted to Holy Orders by the present Bishop of Chester. and that the very Original Orders, Signed by the Bishop of Chester's own Hand, and Sealed with his Seal, are left at Mr. John Sky's, at the Black-Boy and Three Tobacco-Pipes at Queen-Hithe.

This is therefore to certify, That the said Abraham Gill was never Ordained by me either Priest or Deacon, nor any other Person whose Sirname was Gill.

And whereas it is said, That Richard Tod, a Minister of the Church of England, hath Sworn, That the said Abraham Gill was Ordained by Nicholas Bishop of Chester, and Five other young Men, upon the same Day, that he this Deponent was, viz. at Trinity, in the Year of Our Lord 1692. This is likewise to certify, That one Richard Todd, (who wrote his Name with a double dd) was Ordained Deacon by me, viz. not upon Trinity Sunday, 1692, but upon Trinity Sunday, 1696; and that not on Sunday, but upon Trinity Saturday, and was Ordained by Five, but Ten other Persons, were at the same time Ordained together with him. In Witness of what I have said, I subscribe my Hand, this, 28th Day of May, 1705.
