

Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And Whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of March, 1958.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 7th day of March, 1958, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Church Patronage Act, 1870, and of the Acts therein mentioned, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Stoke D'Abernon in the County of Surrey and in the diocese of Guildford.

"SCHEME.

"Whereas we are satisfied that Pamela Whittaker of the Barn House, Stoke D'Abernon in the County of Surrey, married woman, is the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice as the Tenant for Life upon the trusts declared in the Settlement referred to in a Vesting Assent dated the 3rd December, 1954, and made by Ranolf Nelson Greenwood of 4, Throgmorton Avenue, in the City of London, Solicitor, and Percy George Sydney Misselbrook of 200, Eardley Road, Streatham, in the County of London, Esquire.

"And whereas the said Pamela Whittaker desires to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Provost of the King's College of Our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge and the Scholars of the same College (hereinafter called the said Provost and Scholars) and consents to this Scheme (in testimony whereof the said Pamela Whittaker has executed the same):

"And whereas the said Provost and Scholars are willing to accept such transfer (in testimony whereof they have executed this Scheme):

"And whereas the Right Reverend Ivor, Bishop of Guildford, has executed this Scheme, in token of his consent thereto as Bishop of the diocese in which the said benefice is situate:

"And whereas we are satisfied that the said transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the said right of patronage arises or exists:

"Now, therefore, with the consents (testified as aforesaid) of the said Pamela Whittaker, of the said Provost and Scholars and of the said Ivor, Bishop of Guildford, we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Provost and Scholars."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Guildford.

A 2

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of March, 1958.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 7th day of March, 1958, in words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Church Patronage Act, 1870, and of the Acts therein mentioned and of the Church Commissioners Measure, 1947, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure of Kingswood in the County and diocese of Gloucester (hereinafter called 'the said benefice')."

"SCHEME.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the right to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant is vested either in such of the inhabitants of the parish of Kingswood as are contributory to a rate for the maintenance of the incumbent of the said benefice known as the Minister's Rate (hereinafter called 'the Ratepayers') or in the Parochial Church Council of the said parish (hereinafter called 'the Council')

"And whereas the Ratepayers and the Council desire that the advowson of the said benefice be transferred to the Diocesan Board of Patronage for the Diocese of Gloucester (hereinafter called 'the Board')

"And whereas the Ratepayers have signified such desire at a duly convened and advertised meeting held on the 21st October, 1957, and have at the said Meeting appointed eight Trustees for the purpose of signifying the consent of the Ratepayers to this Scheme

"And whereas the due calling of the said Meeting and the proceedings thereat and the names, addresses and descriptions of the said Trustees have been certified by a Justice of the Peace for the County of Gloucester

"And whereas the said Trustees in testimony of such consent as aforesaid have duly signed the said Scheme

"And whereas the Council has by resolution passed at a duly convened Meeting on 12th September, 1957, certified its desire for such transfer of the said Advowson as aforesaid and has authorised six representatives to sign any documents on its behalf required in connection with such transfer as aforesaid

"And whereas the said representatives in testimony of the consent of the Council to such transfer as aforesaid have duly signed the said Scheme

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Board and of the Right Reverend Father in God Wilfred, by Divine Permission Lord Bishop of Gloucester, as the Bishop of the diocese within which the said benefice is situate, (in testimony whereof they have executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the Board and their successors and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Board and by their successors for ever."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Gloucester.
