NATIONAL INSURANCE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

10 John Adam Street, London W.C.2.
12th November 1958.

THE NATIONAL INSURANCE (NEW ENTRANTS TRANSITIONAL) AMENDMENT (No. 2) REGULATIONS, 1958.

In accordance with section 77 of the National Insurance Act, 1946, the National Insurance Advisory Committee give notice that they have received from the Minister of Pensions and National Insurance for consideration and report thereon the preliminary draft of regulations entitled the National Insurance (New Entrants Transitional) Amendment (No. 2) Regulations, 1958.

A short explanatory note on these regulations is appended to this notice.

Copies of the preliminary draft of these regulations may be purchased directly (price 3d.) from Her Majesty's Stationery Office at the addresses shown on the last page of this Gazette or through any bookseller.

The Committee will take into consideration any objection, made by or on behalf of persons affected, sent to them before 12th December 1958. Objections should be addressed to the Secretary, National Insurance Advisory Committee, 10 John Adam Street, London W.C.2.

Ifor Evans, Chairman.

Explanatory Note

These Regulations apply to persons who (being over school-leaving age on the 5th July 1948) enter into insurance at a time which, although more than three years before their attaining the age of sixty-five in the case of a man or sixty in the case of a woman, makes it impossible for them to satisfy the condition as to yearly average of contributions necessary to qualify for widow's benefit or retirement pension. The Regulations apply to them the provisions governing the position of persons who enter into insurance within three years before attaining pensionable age, so that on attaining that age they cease to be liable to pay contributions and are entitled to a refund of that portion of each contribution they have paid which is attributable to widow's benefit and retirement pension.
