1. The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office, at the Bank of England, on Wednesday, the 24th December 1958, at 1 p.m., for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, the National Debt Act, 1889, and the National Loans Act, 1939, to the amount of £50,000,000 for Bills due 63 days after date and to the amount of £230,000,000 for Bills due 91 days after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000 and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different currencies and for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House or Broker.

6. Notification will be sent by post on the same day as Tenders are received, to the persons whose Tenders are accepted in whole or in part, and payment in full of the amounts due in respect of such accepted Tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not later than 1.30 p.m. (Saturday, 11.30 a.m.) on the day on which the relative Bills are to be dated.

7. Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.

8. Tenders must be made on the printed forms which may be obtained from the Chief Cashier's Office, Bank of England.

9. The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that they have made an Order under section 4 (1) of the Finance Act, 1958, viz.:

The Wines (Commonwealth Preference) Order, 1958.

In fulfilment of the Ottawa agreements with Australia and South Africa, the Ottawa Agreements Act, 1932, provided that Empire wine, not exceeding 27° of proof spirit, should be charged with customs duty at a preferential rate representing the full rate chargeable on foreign wine, not exceeding 25° of proof spirit, reduced by 2s. per gallon, but directed the Treasury by order to substitute a reduction of 1s. (instead of 2s.) per gallon for any period during which to do so would not contravene any of the Ottawa agreements.

With effect from 1st January 1959, the relevant part of the Ottawa Agreements Act is repealed by the Import Duties Act, 1958, and replaced by the Finance Act, 1958, which provides that light wines which qualify for Commonwealth preference are to be charged at preferential rates which continue the existing margins of preference, but that each of these preferential rates is to be increased by 1s. unless the Treasury by order direct otherwise.

Such increases would contravene the above-mentioned Ottawa agreements, and this Order accordingly directs that the preferential rates are to remain unchanged.

The Order comes into operation on 1st January 1959, and has been published as Statutory Instruments 1958, No. 2131.

Copies may be purchased (price 3d. net) direct from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, at the addresses shown on the last page of this Gazette or through any bookseller.

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that they have made an Order under section 2 of, and paragraph 3 of the First Schedule to, the Import Duties Act, 1958, viz.:

The Coffee (Commonwealth Preference) Order, 1958.

In fulfilment of the Ottawa agreements with India and Southern Rhodesia, the Ottawa Agreements Act, 1932, provided for a preferential rate of customs duty, being the full rate less 9s. 4d. per cwt., to be charged on Empire coffee (not kiln-dried, roasted or ground), but directed the Treasury by order to substitute the previous preferential rate (the full rate less 2s. 4d. per cwt.) for any period during which to do so would not contravene any of the Ottawa agreements.

With effect from the 1st January next the relevant part of the Ottawa Agreements Act is repealed and replaced by the Import Duties Act, 1958, which provides for a margin of preference of 2s. 4d. or, if the Treasury by order so direct, of 9s. 4d. per cwt. for coffee of this kind which qualifies for Commonwealth preference.

The Ottawa agreements still require the maintenance of the 9s. 4d. margin of preference, and this Order is made accordingly.

The Order comes into operation on 1st January 1959, and has been published as Statutory Instruments 1958, No. 2130.

Copies may be purchased (price 3d. net) direct from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, at the addresses shown on the last page of this Gazette or through any bookseller.

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that they have made an Order under the Second Schedule to the Finance Act, 1957, viz.:

The Composite Goods Order, 1958, which replaces the Composite Goods Order, 1957, as amended by the Composite Goods (Amendment) Order, 1958, which prescribed the method of determining the customs duty chargeable in respect of sweetening matter, cocoa, coffee, chicory or hydrocarbon oils contained as ingredients in composite goods.

This Order re-enacts substantially the same provisions, but in terms appropriate to the revised classification of goods prescribed in the Customs Tariff, 1959, which is to be brought into operation on 1st January 1959, by the Import Duties (General) Order, 1958.

The Order comes into operation on 1st January 1959, and has been published as Statutory Instruments 1958, No. 2129.

Copies may be purchased (price 5d. net) direct from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, at the addresses shown on the last page of this Gazette or through any bookseller.
