THE FAIRS ACT, 1871

The Abolition of Rosley Hill Fair Order, 1959

Whereas representations have been made to me by William Steuart Trimble the owner of the fair at Rosley Hill in the county of Cumberland that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that it should be abolished and the said owner has consented in writing to its abolition:

And whereas notice of the said representations and of the time when they will be considered by me has been published in accordance with section three of the Fairs Act, 1871.

And whereas it appears to me after considering the said representations that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said fair should be abolished:

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Richard Austen Butler, C.H., M.P., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in exercise of the powers conferred upon me by section three of the Fairs Act, 1871, do hereby order that the fair at Rosley Hill in the county of Cumberland shall be abolished.

R. A. Butler,

One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

(34 & 35 Vict. c. 12).
