EXPLANATORY NOTES

National Insurance (Non-participation—Certificates) Regulations, 1959

These Regulations provide in Part I for the appointment of a Registrar and deputy Registrars for the purpose of the issue to employers of certificates specifying employments which are to be treated as non-participating employments and the variation, cancellation and surrender of such certificates and for the purpose of determining questions arising thereon as to whether any employment is to be treated as a non-participating employment. Part II prescribes the manner in which elections and revocations of elections are to be made by employers seeking the issue, cancellation or variation of a certificate. Part III provides for questions as to whether or for what period an employment is, under any certificate, to be treated as non-participating in relation to any person, to be referred to the Registrar by the Minister and empowers the Registrar to appoint a person to hold an Inquiry before determining such a question.

Part IV prescribes the manner in which questions are to be determined by the Registrar and provides for appeals from his decisions to lie to the Adjudicator to whom the Registrar may also refer a question instead of determining it himself. This Part also provides for review by the Registrar of decisions on questions referred to him by the Minister under Part III.

The procedure for the issue, variation and cancellation of certificates by the Registrar is prescribed in Part V which also includes matters connected therewith.

National Insurance (Non-participation—Appeals and References) Regulations, 1959

(The National Insurance (Non-participation—Certificates) Regulations, 1959, provide for the submission to the Adjudicator of any such question on appeal from a decision of or on reference by the Registrar.) The Regulations include provision for oral hearings and other procedural matters and contain a power for the Adjudicator, on a reference or appeal to him, to review decisions given by himself or the Registrar on questions whether any employment is to be treated as a non-participating employment in relation to any person or the period for which it is to be so treated.
