Now, therefore, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother and Her Royal Highness The Princess Alexandra of Kent, being authorised thereto by the said Letters Patent, have taken the said Scheme into consideration, and do hereby, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, on Her Majesty's behalf ratify the said Scheme and order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure:

And do hereby, by and with the like advice, direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Derby.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court of Saint James, the 28th day of July 1959.

PRESENT,

Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother
Her Royal Highness The Princess Alexandra of Kent

Lord President
Earl of Selkirk

Mr. Brooke
Mr. Aubrey Jones

Whereas Her Majesty, in pursuance of the Regency Acts, 1937 to 1953, was pleased, by Letters Patent dated the fifteenth day of June 1959, to delegate to the following Counsellors of State (subject to the exceptions hereinafter mentioned) or any two or more of them, that is to say, His Royal Highness Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother, Her Royal Highness The Princess Margaret, His Royal Highness The Duke of Gloucester, His Royal Highness The Duke of Kent and Her Royal Highness The Princess Alexandra of Kent, full power and authority during the period of Her Majesty's absence from the United Kingdom to summon and hold on Her Majesty's behalf Her Privy Council and to signify thereat Her Majesty's approval for anything for which Her Majesty's approval in Council is required:

And whereas Her Majesty was further pleased to except from the number of the said Counsellors of State His Royal Highness Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh, and His Royal Highness The Duke of Kent and Her Royal Highness The Princess Alexandra of Kent while absent from the United Kingdom:

And whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 23rd day of July 1959, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Harold, Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting the disunion of the united benefice of Crowfield with Gosbeck in the diocese of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich.

"SCHEME

"Whereas by an Order of His late Majesty King George the Fifth in Council dated the 21st day of December, 1933, and published in the London Gazette on the 22nd day of the same month (hereinafter called 'the Order of 1933') the benefice of Crowfield and the benefice of Gosbeck were with effect from the 31st day of December 1935, united into one benefice with cure of souls, but the parishes of the said benefices continued in all respects distinct:

"And whereas the Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich has forwarded to us provisional proposals pursuant to the said Pastoral Reorganisation Measure recommending that the union of the said benefices should be dissolved, that the said benefice of Crowfield should be held in plurality with the benefice of Stonham Aspal and that the said benefice of Gosbeck should be held in plurality with the benefice of Coddendam, all of which benefices are situate in the said diocese of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich:

"And whereas effect can be given to the said proposals so far as they relate to the dissolution of the said union by a Scheme prepared by us and affirmed by Order of Your Majesty in Council pursuant to the said Union of Benefices Measures, and so far as they relate to the said pluralities by subsequent Orders made by the said Bishop pursuant to the said Pastoral Reorganisation Measure:

"Now, therefore, we do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council as follows, that is to say:

"1. Disunion of benefices. The union of the benefice of Crowfield and the benefice of Gosbeck in the said united benefice of Crowfield with Gosbeck shall be dissolved and the said benefices shall thereupon each become a separate benefice with cure of souls within the limits of its separate parish under the styles of 'The Benefice of Crowfield' and 'The Benefice of Gosbeck' respectively.

"2. Taking effect of disunion. The disunion of the said united benefice shall take effect upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette.

"3. Parsonage House. Upon the disunion taking effect the parsonage house of the said united benefice shall belong to the separate benefice of Crowfield and shall be the house of residence of the incumbent thereof.

"4. Patronage. Upon the disunion taking effect, the rights of presentation to the separate benefices of Crowfield and Gosbeck shall be vested in the persons (or their successors in title) in whom the rights of presentation to those benefices respectively vested immediately before the union of the said benefices.

"5. Cancellation of curacy fund. Upon the disunion taking effect clause 4 of the Order of 1933 shall be rescinded.

"6. Distribution of endowments. Upon the disunion taking effect the endowments and property of the said united benefice other than the parsonage house thereof shall be divided and distributed as follows, that is to say, the endowments and property specified in the Schedule hereto shall be assigned and annexed to the separate benefice of Crowfield and all other the endowments and property of the said united benefice shall be assigned and annexed to the separate benefice of Gosbeck.

"THE SCHEDULE

"Endowments and property of the united benefice of Crowfield with Gosbeck to be assigned and annexed to the benefice of Crowfield upon the disunion taking effect.

"(1) A capital sum of £3,555 16s. 3d. being part of a larger capital sum at present held by us on behalf of the said united benefice.

"(2) All that annual sum or charge of £125 charged on the income of the benefice of Coddendam in the said diocese in favour of the former benefice of Crowfield by an Order of His late Majesty King George the Fifth in Council dated the 16th day of April 1923, and published in the London Gazette on the 24th day of the same month."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved at the Council held under the authority of the said Letters Patent:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother and Her Royal Highness The Princess Alexandra of Kent, being authorized thereto by the said Letters Patent, have taken the said Scheme into consideration, and do hereby, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, on Her
