STATE INTELLIGENCE

HONOURS AND AWARDS

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD

St. James's Palace, London S.W.1.

29th September 1959.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased, on the advice of Her Majesty's Canadian Ministers, to approve the undermentioned awards of the British Empire Medal. To be dated 26th September 1959.

Awarded the British Empire Medal for Gallantry, Civil Division:

Hugh Dickson BOWYER, Constable, Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

John KROEPFL, Athalmer, British Columbia.

A man slipped and fell 12 feet into a hopper, and was buried under six feet of loose frozen gypsum rock. Constable Bowyer and Mr. Kroepfl removed their coats and worked to free him. After two hours they had uncovered his head and one arm, but one side of the wall of frozen rock began to slide.

By prompt action Constable Bowyer supported by Kroepfl, halted the movement of rock for another hour and a half, and continued to hold back the rock wall while loose rock was removed. Ropes were finally secured about the trapped man and he was rescued.

Alvin Thomas MILLHOUSE, Constable, Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

A sudden flooding of the Allouette River at Haney, B.C., trapped in their home on the bank of the river a mother and her nine-year-old daughter. Constable Millhouse obtained a boat in which they were placed. The boat capsized and the occupants were swept downstream and found temporary safety on logs and other debris.

Meanwhile Constable Millhouse realising that rescue depended on assistance from the shore left his place of comparative safety and, at considerable risk, worked his way to the shore, 300 yards away. He summoned assistance and returned to aid in the rescue operations which were completed twelve hours after the initial rescue attempts were begun.

ROYAL WARRANT

ELIZABETH R.

Whereas We deem it expedient to provide for the increase of certain pensions granted in respect of service in the Armed Forces of India and of Burma or in respect of service with such Forces to correspond as nearly as may be with the benefits provided in the case of civil pensions by the Pensions (Increase) Act, 1959;

Our Will and Pleasure is that the provisions which are set out in the Schedule attached to this Our Warrant for the increase of such pensions shall have effect from 1st August 1959.

Given at Our Court of Balmoral this 14th day of September 1959, in the 8th year of Our Reign.

By HER MAJESTY'S COMMAND,

HOME.

SCHEDULE

1. In this Warrant, unless the context otherwise requires

(a) "pension" means a pension of the classes described in paragraph 2 of this Schedule, payable in respect of service specified in paragraph 3 of this Schedule, not being a pension payable to a person resident in India, Pakistan, Burma or Aden;

(b) "service pension" and "service element of pension" include Indian Element of pension.

2. The following are the classes of pension referred to in paragraph 1 of this Schedule

(1) Service pensions and the service portion of disability pensions under Indian or Burma Regulations or under the Third Schedule to the Warrant dated 21st May 1955, of

(a) European officers of the Armed Forces of the former British India who held Commissions in Our Land Forces and all officers of the Indian Medical Service;

(b) officers and warrant officers of the India Unattached List;

(c) European officers and warrant officers of the Royal Indian Navy or Royal Indian Naval Volunteer Reserve;

(d) European officers and warrant officers who formed part of the Armed Forces of Burma before 4th January 1948;

(e) members of the Queen Alexandra's Military Nursing Service for India;

(f) officers and warrant officers of the Indian Medical Department (British Cadre);

(g) Indian Officers of the Armed Forces of the former British India and members of the Indian Military Nursing Service who were, on 1st April 1955, permanently resident in the United Kingdom.

(2) Service pensions payable under the authority of the Pensions (India, Pakistan and Burma) Act, 1955, to officers of the Royal Engineers, the Royal Artillery, the Royal Corps of Signals, the Continuous Indian Service Cadre of the Royal Army Veterinary Corps and the Army Educational Corps.

(3) Service family pensions at ordinary rates which were assessed in accordance with regulations in force before 1st April 1959, in respect of officers and warrant officers within any description in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) or (f) of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph.

(4) Pensions in respect of distinguished or meritorious service.

3. The service referred to in paragraph 1 of this Schedule is service, whether by the recipient of the pension or by some other person

(a) which, except in the case of service in the Armed Forces of Burma, ended before 15th August 1947, or the termination of which was attributable to the passing of the Indian Independence Act, 1947, or

(b) which, in the case of service in the Armed Forces of Burma, ended before 4th January 1948, or the termination of which was attributable to the passing of the Burma Independence Act, 1947, or

(c) which was rendered by a person who in the opinion of our Secretary of State was domiciled outside Asia at the date when the service began, such date being, except in the case of service in the Armed Forces of Burma, a date before 15th August 1947, and, in the case of service in the Armed Forces of Burma, a date before 4th January 1948.

4. A pension may be increased provided either

(a) the pensioner has attained the age of sixty years, or where the pension is a widow's pension, forty years, or

(b) the pensioner, if receiving a pension as the child of a deceased officer or warrant officer, has not attained the age of sixteen years, or having attained that age, is receiving full time instruction in an educational establishment, or is undergoing training for a trade, profession or vocation in such circumstances that he is required to devote the whole of his time to that training for a period of not less than two years, or

(c) the pensioner was invalided from the service, or

(d) the pensioner is a woman with at least one dependant (as defined in paragraph 7 below), or

(e) the pensioner is permanently incapacitated by physical or mental infirmity from engaging in any regular full time employment.

5. Except in the case of a family pension included in paragraph 2 (3) of this Schedule, the amount of the increase shall be twelve per cent. of the pension in payment to the pensioner at the time when the increase becomes payable, including for this purpose any increase awarded or admissible under the Warrant of 4th August 1956, and also including any part of the pension which has been commuted after 31st July 1959. For the purpose of the calculation, any fraction of a pound of the annual pension shall be treated as a whole pound.

In the case of a family pension included in paragraph 2 (3) of this Schedule the amount of the increase, similarly calculated, shall be ten per cent.

6. Any general condition attaching to the grant or continuance of a pension shall also apply to the grant or continuance of any increase to that pension.

7. The expression "dependant" for the purpose of paragraph 4 shall mean a person wholly or mainly supported by the pensioner who either:

(a) has not attained the age of sixteen years, or who is in receipt of full time instruction at an educational establishment, or undergoing training for any trade, profession, or vocation, in such circumstances that he is required to devote the whole of his time to that training for a period of not less than two years, or

(b) immediately before the date of effect of this present Warrant, qualified the pensioner, under former Warrants, for an increase of pension which would otherwise have been inadmissible.

8. The grant of an increase of pension under this Warrant shall not affect entitlement to increases under former Warrants, and any increase granted under this Warrant shall be disregarded in assessing the increase admissible under those Warrants.
