

called 'the said benefice') of Cambo in the County of Northumberland and in the diocese of Newcastle.

"SCHEME

"Whereas we are satisfied that Dame Mary Katharine Trevelyan of Wallington in the County of Northumberland, widow, and Sir George Lowthian Trevelyan, of Wallington aforesaid, Baronet, as Executors of the Will of the late Sir Charles Philips Trevelyan, Baronet, are the patrons or persons entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice:

"And whereas the said Dame Mary Katharine Trevelyan and Sir George Lowthian Trevelyan, desire to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Bishop of Newcastle for the time being and are consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof they have executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Hugh, Bishop of Newcastle (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Hugh, Bishop of Newcastle, and his successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Newcastle for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Newcastle.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of October 1959.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 1st day of October 1959 in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, and the Diocesan Stipends Funds Measure, 1953, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of Peterborough (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Long Buckby and the benefice of Brington, both situate in the diocese of Peterborough.

"SCHEME

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Long Buckby and the benefice of Brington shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Long Buckby with Brington' but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the Reverend Henry Voller if he is then incumbent of the said benefice of Long Buckby shall, with his consent (testified by his signature hereto), be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"3. Parsonage House. Without prejudice to the exercise before the date when the union takes effect of any of the powers conferred by the Parsonages Measures, 1938 and 1947, upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Long Buckby shall, if at that date it so belongs to the said benefice, be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"4. Patronage. After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercised by the patrons of the two benefices alternately, the patron of the benefice of Brington having the first presentation to the united benefice to be made after the union.

"5. Diversion of Endowment Income.

"(1) Subject as hereinafter provided, any surplus, calculated by us for the twelve months ending on the 31st March in each year, of the endowment income (calculated in accordance with the Schedule hereto) of the united benefice over and above an annual sum of £700 shall, with effect from the date upon which the union shall take effect, be paid to and be held by us, for the benefit of the diocesan stipends fund of the said diocese: provided that if after the date upon which the union shall take effect any additional capital endowment shall accrue to or be acquired by the united benefice (not being capital endowment derived from the sale of any property of the united benefice) the income from such subsequently acquired capital endowment shall not be taken into account for the purpose of calculating such surplus as aforesaid.

"(2) The said endowment income and the said surplus and the said annual sum of £700 shall be deemed to accrue from day to day and shall when we deem that circumstances so require be apportionable accordingly.

"(3) Any moneys due to us from the incumbent of the united benefice, or, during any vacancy in the united benefice, from the sequestrators thereof, as the case may be (hereinafter called 'the incumbent or sequestrators') upon the calculation of the said surplus shall be paid by the incumbent or sequestrators to us not later than the 30th June in each year and shall be recoverable as a debt due to us.

"(4) For the purpose of ascertaining the amounts of the said endowment income and of the said surplus, we shall have power to require production by the incumbent or sequestrators of accounts and other documents in relation thereto, and the said accounts for the twelve months to 31st March in each year (or where applicable for a part of the year ending on that date) shall be rendered annually to us within six weeks of that date in such form as we shall prescribe; and in the event of failure by the incumbent or sequestrators to produce such accounts or documents we shall have all legal remedies for enforcing production thereof.

"SCHEDULE

"For the purpose of this Scheme and subject to the proviso contained in clause 5 (1) thereof the endowment income of the united benefice shall, without prejudice to the power of decision vested in us by virtue of Section 18 of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, if any question shall arise, be computed in accordance with our Central Register of Benefice Income, that is to say, by including:

"(1) all gross secured income payable by us and any other person or body,
"and (2) all gross income received from ground rents, chief rents or other fixed charges, other glebe rents and any letting of the parsonage house or a formally divided portion thereof,
"and by deducting therefrom:

"(1) the rates payable on the parsonage house if occupied by the incumbent,
"(2) the rent and rates payable on any house occupied by the incumbent other than the parsonage house,
"(3) the annual assessment charged upon the incumbent under the Ecclesiastical Dilapidations Measures, 1923 to 1951, in respect of the benefice,
"(4) the rates payable on the glebe,
"(5) the cost of collecting glebe rents,
"(6) any tithe annuity, rentcharge or fee farm rent charged upon the glebe,
"(7) any other outgoings in respect of the glebe,
"(8) any charge upon the benefice income in favour of another benefice or any lay person,
"(9) any payment to a curate or lay worker out of the benefice income,
"(10) the annual payments in respect of capital and interest in respect of any mortgage of the benefice income,
