And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of October 1959.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 1st day of October 1959, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Ripon (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Ainderby Steeple and the benefice of Scruton, both situate in the diocese of Ripon.

"SCHEME

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Ainderby Steeple and the benefice of Scruton shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Ainderby Steeple and Scruton' but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect.

"3. Parsonage House. Without prejudice to the exercise before the date when the union takes effect of any of the powers conferred by the Parsonages Measures, 1938 and 1947, upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Ainderby Steeple shall, if at that date it so belongs to the said benefice, be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of October 1959.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Minister of Housing and Local Government, after giving to the Incumbent and Churchwardens of the Parish of Longfleet St. Mary, in the Borough and County of the Town of Poole, ten days' previous notice of his intention in that behalf, has, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by subsequent enactments, made a Representation to Her Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the Public Health, the opening of any new burial ground in the said Borough and County of the Town of Poole, save with the previous approval of the Minister of Housing and Local Government, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein as follows, viz.:—

Poole.—Forthwith and entirely in the Churchyard of the Parish Church of Longfleet St. Mary.

Provided that—

(a) In any walled grave now existing in the said Churchyard, burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b) In any earthen grave now existing in the said Churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave.

(c) In the said Churchyard, in two grave spaces in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed at their decease of the bodies of Mrs. F. M. Bellamy and Miss F. L. Foreman for whom such grave spaces have been reserved and appropriated as burial places.

Subject in each case to the condition that no part of the coffins containing the bodies shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the ground adjoining the graves.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give Notice of such Representation and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 3rd day of December next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation one month before the said 3rd day of December.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of October 1959.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Minister of Housing and Local Government, after giving to the Incumbent and Churchwardens of the Parish of Godmanchester, in the County of Huntingdon, ten days' previous notice of his intention in that behalf, has, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by subsequent enactments, made a Representation to Her Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the Public Health, the opening of any new burial ground in the Borough of Godmanchester in the said County of Huntingdon, save with the previous approval of the Minister of Housing and Local Government, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein as follows, viz.:—

Godmanchester.—Forthwith and entirely in the Churchyard of St. Mary the Virgin, in the said Borough of Godmanchester,

Provided that—

(a) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said Churchyard, burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried
