From Thursday December 20. to Monday December 24. 1705.

Westminster, Decemb. 21.

HER Majesty came this Day to the House of Peers; and being in Her Royal Robes seated on the Throne, with the usual Solemnity, Mr. Aston, Deputy Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from Her Majesty to the House of Commons, requiring their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, Her Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to

An Act for granting an Aid to Her Majesty, by a Land Tax, to be raised in the Year One thousand seven hundred and six.

An Act to Repeal several Clauses in the Statute made in the Third and Fourth Years of Her present Majesty's Reign, for Securing the Kingdom of England from several Acts lately passed in the Parliament of Scotland.

An Act for the Naturalization of the most Excellent Princess Sophia, Electress and Dutchess Dowager of Hannover, and the Issue of Her Body.

And to Three private Acts.

After which Her Majesty made a most Gracious Speech to both Houses, which follows.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Unanimity of your Proceedings in this Parliament, has already had so good an Effect all over Europe, that I can't but take Notice of it to you with great Satisfaction.

The good Disposition you have shewn in doing your Part, so fully towards an Union with Scotland, is also very Acceptable to Me, and I hope it will prove for the Advantage and Quiet of both Kingdoms.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I must not Omit to take this Occasion of returning you My hearty Thanks, for the great Dispatch of this Seasonable Supply, which you have given Me: I look upon it as a sure Pledge, that the same Zeal and Affection for My Service, and the good of the Kingdom, will carry you through all the necessary Parts of the Publick Business in this Session.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

In case you now think of some Recess, as is usual at this Season, I make no doubt you will afterwards return with the same good Disposition, to give all possible Dispatch to the Publick Affairs still depending, and bring this Session of Parliament to a happy Conclusion.

By the QUEEN,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it is Our Royal Intention to give all due Encouragement to all such Seamen and Able-Bodied Landmen, who shall voluntarily Enter themselves in Our Service, and Remain on Board Our Ships of War in Our Royal Navy, We have thought fit (by and with the Advice of Our Privy-Council) to Publish this Our Royal Proclamation; And We do hereby Promise and Declare, That all such Seamen and Able-Bodied Landmen, (not above the Age of fifty five Years, and not under the Age of Sixteen Years,) who, on or between the Twentieth Day of this Instant December, and the Eleventh Day of February next, shall Voluntarily Enter themselves in Our Service, either with the Officers of Our Ships of War, Fire-Ships or Bomb-Vessels, (Tenders only excepted,) who are or before that time shall be in Sea-Pay, or with any Justice of the Peace, or Chief Magistrate of any Town, or with any Vice-Admiral, or other Commission-Officer, to Serve on Board any of Our said Ships or Vessels, shall Receive as Our Free Gift and Royal Bounty, the respective Rewards and Allowances following: That is to say, Every such Seaman Two Months Pay, and every such Able-Bodied Landman One Months Pay, to be paid to them respectively by the Principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy, before the respective Ships, on which they shall be, do Proceed to Sea. And We do hereby Require and Direct, That if any such Seaman, or Able-Bodied Landman, shall, within the Time before-mentioned, Enter himself with any Justice of the Peace, or Chief Magistrate of any Town, or with any Vice-Admiral, or other Commission-Officer, to Serve on Board any of Our Ships of War, or other Vessels before-mentioned, such Justice of the Peace, or Chief Magistrate, Vice-Admiral, or other Commission-Officer respectively, shall give to each Man so Entering, a Certificate under his Hand and Seal, without Fee or Reward, of his Entry, and the Time of such Entry, and for what Ship, and shall thereby limit such a Number of Days (not exceeding Fourteen Days) as may be necessary for his repairing on Board such Ship, or any other Ship or Bomb-Vessel on Our Service, at the next Port. And We do hereby Declare, That all such Seamen, and Able-Bodied Landmen, who within the Time aforesaid, shall Enter themselves, as aforesaid, and within the Time Limited and Appointed in such Certificate, Repair on Board any of Our said Ships or Tenders appointed to Receive them, (according to their respective Qualifications aforesaid, and not otherwise) shall be Entitled to Our Royal Bounty herein before-appointed, and intended for them respectively, and their Pay from the Time of their first Entering with such Justice of the Peace, or other Officer, as aforesaid; And that they, and also such who shall so Enter themselves within Twelve Days after the Tenth of February next, shall be allowed Time (without Molestation) to render themselves on Board Our Ships of War: And therefore We do hereby Require and Command all Captains Commanding any of Our Ships of War, or other Our Ships aforesaid, and all other Persons whatsoever, Authorized or Impowered to Impress Mariners for Our Service, That they do not Impress any such Seamen, or Able-Bodied Landmen, to whom such Certificate, as aforesaid, shall be given, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Our Royal Proclamation, or any Men now in Our Service, who by Tickets Signed by any of Our Flag-Officers, have or shall have Leave to be Absent from their Duty to the said Eleventh Day of February next, before they shall fail to Enter themselves on Board such of Our said Ships or Vessels, on which they shall Enter themselves to Serve, or to which they shall Belong, according to the Time limited by such Certificates or Tickets; nor any Person or Persons Protected or Employed in the River or on the Coasts, by the Commissioners of Our Navy, Ordnance, Victualling, Customs, or Transportation, or the Watermen in Our Service, or the Service of Our Most Dear Consort. And to the end We may be truly informed what Persons shall so Enter and Render themselves to Serve on Board Our Fleet, in pursuance of this Our Royal Proclamation, We do hereby Require and Command every respective Captain Commanding any of Our said Ships of War, or other Our Ships or Vessels aforesaid, and also all Justices of the Peace, Chief Magistrates, Vice-Admirals, and other Commission Officers aforesaid, respectively, to Transmit to the Principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy exact Lists and Accounts of the Names, Ages and Descriptions of the Persons who Voluntarily shall Enter themselves with them, and the Time

WHEREAS of late several Persons endeavouring to Foment Animosities, and to Cover Designs, which they dare not publicly own, have Easly, Seditiously, and Maliciously Suggested the Chosen of England, as by Law Established, to be in Danger at this time, whereof We thought fit to take Notice in Our speech made at the Opening of this Parliament: And whereas the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament assembled, have by their Humble Address Represented to Us, That having taken into Consideration Our said most Gracious Speech, they had, upon Mature Deliberation, come to a Resolution, which they laid before Us, Assuring Us, That as We had been Pleas'd to Express a just Indignation against all such Wicked Persons, they will be also always Ready, to the utmost of their Power, to Assist Us in Discourtenning and Defeating their Practices, Humbly beseeching Us to take Effectual Measures for the making the said Resolution Publick, and also for Punishing the Authors and spreaders of these Scandalous and Seditious Reports, to the end that all others may for the future be deterred from Endeavouring to Disturb the Kingdom with such Unreasonable and Groundless Disturbances: We therefore in the said Humble Request of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament assembled, do by this Our Royal Proclamation make Publick the said Resolution, which follows in these Words:

Resolved, By the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament assembled, That the Church of England, as by Law Established, which was Rescued from the Extremest Danger by King William the Third, of Glorious Memory, Is now by God's Blessing under the Happy Reign of Her Majesty, in a most Safe and Flourishing Condition; And that whosoever goes about to Suggest and Insinuate, That the Church is in Danger under Her Majesties Administration, Is an Enemy to the Queen, the Church, and Kingdom.

And We do hereby, by the Advice of Our Privy-Council, Declare, That We will proceed with the utmost Severity, the Law will allow of, against the Authors or Spreaders of the said Scandalous and Scandalous Reports. And We do hereby Strictly Charge and Command all and singular Our Judges, Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bayliffs, and all other Our Ministers whatsoever, to take Effectual Care for the speedy apprehension, Prosecution and Punishment of all such Persons who have or shall at any time hereafter Offend herein. And We do hereby further Require and Command all Our Loving Subjects whatsoever, to Discover and Apprehend all and every Person and Persons whatsoever Offending, as aforesaid, to the end they may be dealt with and proceeded against according to Law. And whereas the said Scandalous and Scandalous Reports have been greatly promoted and spread by the Printing and Publishing of a Malicious and Seditious Libel, Intituled, The Memorial of the Church of England, humbly offered to the Consideration of all true Lovers of Our Church and Constitution. And whereas David Edwards, of the Parish of St. Dunstons in the West, London, Printer, is Charged on Oath to be the Printer and Publisher of the said Libel, and is now under Prosecution for the same, and on that account absconds from Justice, and the Author or Authors of the said Libel is, or are not yet Discover'd, We do hereby further Require and Command all Our Loving Subjects whatsoever, to Discover and Apprehend the said David Edwards, and the Author or Authors of the said Libel, to the end they may be dealt with and proceeded against according to Law. And We do hereby Promise and Declare, That whosoever shall Discover the Author or Authors of the said Libel, so as he or they may be brought to Justice, shall have and receive, as a Reward for such Discovery, the Sum of Two hundred Pounds: And that whosoever shall Apprehend the said David Edwards, so as he may be brought to Justice for his Offence, as aforesaid, shall have and receive, as a Reward for such Discovery, the Sum of Fifty Pounds, which said respective Sums of Two hundred, and Fifty Pounds, Our High Treasurer is hereby Directed and Required to Pay accordingly. And We do hereby further Promise and Declare, That if the said Printer, or any other Person, (other than the Author or Authors of the said Libel) who was when, and Place where, and for what Ship, and of the Time which shall be allowed them respectively for Rebuilding themselves on Board, and of the Time of their respective Repairing on Board any of Our said Ships. And We do hereby Command and Require the said Seamen and Landmen to Repair on Board the respective Ships on which they shall so Enter themselves, or so much they shall being, within the time limited by said Certificates or Tickets, on Pain of Our highest Displeasur. And We are so Graciously Pleas'd to Declare, That Connaught-Money, according to the Practice of the Navy, shall be allowed to all such Seamen and Landmen so Voluntarily Entering themselves on Board, according to the true meaning of Our said Proclamation. And for Preventing of any Deceits or Abuses which may happen by any Person or Persons leaving the Ships to which they belong, and Entering into or themselves on Board any other of Our Ships, as aforesaid, in order to Obtain the Bounty-Money herein before Granted, We do hereby likewise Direct, Declare and Command, That such Seamen and Landmen belonging to any of Our Ships or Vessels whatsoever, as shall absent themselves from any of the Ships or Vessels to which they shall belong, and shall Enter themselves on Board any other of Our Ships, in Order to Obtain the said Bounty-Money, shall not only lose the Wages due to them in the Ships they shall so leave, but also be severely punished according to their Demerits. And We do hereby further Declare, That if such Men in Our Service, who are or shall be Permitted to be absent by such Tickets, as aforesaid, do not Repair on Board their respective Ships by the time allowed by such Tickets, they shall not only be liable to be Impris'd, but to suffer such further Punishment as by Law may be inflicted on them for such their Neglect. And We do hereby Require all Our Justices of the Peace, and other Magistrates, and also all Our Captains of Our Ships, and others, who shall be Employed in Impressing Men for Our Fleet, That they take particular Care not to Take up, Impress or Entertain any very Old Men, Boys, or others, who, by reason of Infirmity or otherwise, are not fully Qualified for Our Service in Our Royal Navy, for that none such shall be received by the Officers of Our Fleet into Our Service. And whereas it has been often found, that in time of War, great Numbers of Seamen, and also of Watermen, Bargemen and Lightermen fit for Our Sea Service, have left the usual Places of their Abode, and have removed themselves into Private and Obscure Places, endeavouring thereby to avoid the Publick Service, when there is the greatest Occasion for them, We do hereby Require and Command all Our Justices of the Peace, Constables and other Officers, That they not only give all necessary Assistance to Our Officers Employed in Impressing, as aforesaid, but that they do Use their utmost Endeavours to Discover, Secure, Send and Deliver to the Commissioners of Our Navy, at some near Sea-Port Town, or to such other Person as shall be appointed to receive them, all such Seamen, Watermen, Bargemen and Lightermen, fit for Our Service, as shall so Abscond, after the said Tenth Day of February next, in order to their being put on Board Our Fleet, in Our Service; and that of what they shall do therein, they from time to time send an account to the Commissioners of Our Navy. And We do hereby direct the respective Officers of Our Fleet, who shall receive such Seamen, to give Receipts for them, therein expressing the Names of such Seamen, and on Board what Ship or Vessel, and the time when, and the Place where they are Received. And the Commissioners of Our Navy are hereby Directed, upon Producing (at any Port where there are Officers immediately under their Directions) the said Receipts, to Pay to the Person producing the same, Twenty Shillings for each Seaman, and Six pence per Man for each Mile he shall be brought, if under Twenty Miles, and Ten Shillings for each Seaman that shall be brought above Twenty Miles, over and besides the said Twenty Shillings. And We do hereby declare, That no Protection of any Man in any Ships or Vessels Employed in the River or on the Coast, by the Commissioners of Our Navy, Ordnance, Victualling, Customs or Transportation, shall be in force for more than Six Months from the Date thereof, except such as shall be Signed by Our Lord High Admirall, or, in His Absence, by His Council. And We do further Direct, That in all Protections the Persons be not only Named, but Described by their Place of Residence and Employment, and Service for which they are protected. And We do hereby Require and Command Our Commissioners of Our Navy, Ordnance, Victualling, Customs and Transportation, That they do not Protect more Men than their Service absolutely Requires, and to Renew all their Protections within their Reach by the End of the said Time limited for Bounty Money, and to Revoke all Protections by them or any of them Granted respectively, so soon as the Service is over, for which the same respectively were or shall be Granted.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the 13th Day of December, 1705. In the 23rd Year of Our Reign.

any way Privy to, or Instrumental in the Printing or Dispersing the said Libel, shall Discover the Author or Authors thereof, so that he or they may be brought to Justice, the Person making such Discovery of the said Author or Authors, shall not onely have the said Sum of Two hundred Pounds, as aforesaid; but also Our Gracious Pardon for his said Offence. And We do hereby strictly Charge and Command all Our Loving Subjects, as they will answer the contrary at their Perils, that they do not any ways Conceal, but do their utmost Endeavours to Discover and Apprehend the said David Edwards, and the Author or Authors of the said Libel, to the end they may be proceeded against with the utmost Severity according to Law.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twentieth Day of December, 1705. In the Fourth Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the QUEEN.

Florence, Dec. 5. N. S. Letters from Leghorn, which came in yesterday, give an Account, That about 3 days ago an English Merchant-man of 26 Guns, and 70 Men, met in these Seas a French Privateer of 34 Guns and 236 Men, and fought her 5 hours: The English Ship was Boarded several times by the Enemy, but all their Men who entered her were killed except 9, that were taken Prisoners; And the Privateer's Fore-mast being shot down by the Board, she had certainly been taken if another French Privateer of like Force had not come in to her Assistance, with whom the English Merchant-man exchanged three Broad-sides, and then made into the next Port, which was that of Corsica, to refit, having in this Engagement had 5 Men killed and 17 wounded: About 50 of the French were killed, and a great many wounded.

Venice, December 12. Letters from Lonato of the fourth Instant give an Account, That Prince Eugene having Advice that the Enemy were marching towards this Place, he decamped the 28th past from Montechiaro, marched to Lonato, and prevented the Enemy's possessing themselves of that Post, which is of great Importance for the preserving of his Communication with Germany. The French are encamped within a small distance of him. Prince Herculani, the Emperor's Ambassador to this Republick, is lately arrived here from Vienna. Letters from Turin of the 2d Instant say, That Colonel Hamilton was arriv'd there from Barcelona, with Letters from the King of Spain to the Duke of Savoy, giving an Account of his Majesty's Glorious Successes in Catalonia. The Dutchess of Savoy was safely delivered of a Prince the first Instant. They write from Nice of the 26th past, That the Garrison of that Place had made another successful Salley, wherein they ruined the Enemy's Works, and killed a great many of their Men.

Grano, Dec. 5. On the first Instant several Deputies arrived here from the Forces of the Crown, to Compliment the King on his happy Return from Saxony. The Czar will be going from hence in 2 or 3 days towards Moscow.

Vienna, Dec. 12. A Courier arrived here Yesterday, with Letters from the King of Spain to the Emperor, dated at Barcelona the 6th of the last Month, giving an Account, That his Catholick Majesty was then ready to make his publick Entry into that City, and to receive the Homage of the States of Catalonia, that whole Province (the Town of Roses excepted) being reduced to his Obedience. These Letters add, That on the 29th of October the Earl of Peterborow took a Review of the English and Dutch Forces there; and it appeared, that not above 130 of them had been killed during the whole Siege of Barcelona. Count Guido of Staremberg, who commands the Imperial Forces in Piedmont, is arrived here from thence: He has been to wait upon his Imperial Majesty, and was very graciously received.

Frankfort, December 20. Two Imperial Regiments are marched from these Parts towards Bavaria, and Four more are to follow. The Prussian Horse, which are returning from Italy, have Winter-Quarters assigned them in that Electorate; and it is hoped, that the arrival of these Troops will soon put a Stop to the Insurrection in those Parts. They write from Hagenau, That the Enemy's Troops on that side had been in Motion, with intent, as was believed, to endeavour to bring a Supply into Fort Louis, which is in a manner blocked up by our Forces posted in the Neighbourhood of that Place; but upon Advice of the good Dispositions made for the preventing of any such Design, they have thought fit to lay it aside. A great part of their Troops have taken Winter-Quarters in Lorraine, for the better securing of which they are Fortifying the Town of Bisché, which is look'd upon as an Infraction of the Neutrality they had consented the Duke of Lorraine should observe between the several Powers engaged in the present War.

Hague, Dec. 25. N. S. The Duke of Marlborough continues his frequent Conferences with the Deputies of the States General. His Grace intends to embark for England as soon as his Convoy arrives from thence provided the Wind be fair. The States of Holland and Westfalia Adjourned yesterday till after the Holidays. The Letters from France, which came in this day, bring no manner of News. Levies are making every where for the Recruiting of our Troops, the Officers being order'd to have their Regiments compleat by February next.

Corke, Dec 16 Her Majesty's Ship, the Arundel, Caprain Dering Commander, arrived here the 8th Instant, with two Transport-Ships, after a violent Storm, which had dispers'd several other Transport-Ships that were under his Convoy; but they are all since come safe into this Port, and into Kinsale.

Dartmouth, Dec. 18. Two Dutch Men of War, with two Transport-Ships from Barcelona, put into Torbay this morning, having been separated in bad Weather from Admiral Allmonde's Squadron, which is now at Spithead. The Agées of this Place was also forced into Torbay, laden with Salt, from Jersey: The Master of which Ship reports, That the Privateers belonging to that Island have of late taken many French Prizes.

Bristol, Dec 19. This day arriv'd here the Lucretia of Corke, Joseph Richards Master, from Jamaica, but lost from Ireland.

Yarmouth, Dec. 21. Several of the homeward-bound East-County and Hamburgh Fleets, with some of their Convoys, are put back into our Road by contrary Winds and bad Weather.

St. James's, December 20. Her Majesty has received the following Letter from the City of Barcelona.

Sacred and Royal Majesty,
THE City of Barcelona having gained great Advantages, both by the Happy Arrival of our most beloved King and Lord, Charles III (whom GOD preserve) and by their being under his ease and Lawful Dominion; they acknowledge that they owe this their unexpressible good Fortune to the generous Protection of Your Majesty, and the whole English Nation, and to the Assistance of Your great and powerful Fleet, and Your brave and valiant Troops, under the Direction of the Earl of Peterborow, Your General and Commander in Chief, to whose Conduct and Skill in Military Affairs may be attributed these Glorious Progresses, being seconded by the Regularity and good Discipline of Your Troops: (Virtues ever worthy of being eternally fix'd in the Memory, and engraving for ever on the Hearts, of the Nations and Inhabitants of this Place.) This City have therefore thought fit, with great Cheerfulness, to throw themselves at Your Majesty's Royal Feet, to render You their due Acknowledgements, and most humble and respectful Thanks; for Your Majesty's having been Graciously pleas'd to make the Cause of the King our Lord so much Your own; assuring Your Majesty, That, in Gratitude for this Royal Favour, this City, in every thing that may be with in their Power and Abilities, for Your Majesty's Royal Service, will apply themselves to it with that true Zeal and Attention which becomes their grateful Sense of Your Majesty's Goodness; confessing, that all the Glory is due to Your Majesty, to whom the Christian World will owe its Tranquillity, and this City their Liberty. May G O D preserve Your Majesty's Sacred and Royal Person; for which we (the faithful Subjects of his Majesty, our Lord and King Charles III.) do humbly pray, and which we judge necessary. Barcelona, October 24. MDCCV.

Mem^o

Sacred and Royal Majesty,
We kiss Your Majesty's Hands.
Your most humble Servants,
The Councillors of the City of Barcelona.
Francis Cortes, Secretary.

Her Majesty has likewise received Two Letters more to the same Effect, one from the Consistory of the Deputies, and the Auditors General of the Accounts, of the whole Principality of Catalonia, and the Counties of Rossella and Cerdania; the other from the Military Arme of the said Principality and Counties.

Her Majesty has been pleas'd to appoint Sheriffs for Stafford, Leigh Brooke Esq;
Salop, Thomas Aston Esq;

His Royal Highness Prince George of Denmark, Lord High Admiral of England, &c. is pleas'd to direct, That the Men which did belong to Her Majesty's late Ship the Penderint, do, as soon as they arrive in England, repair on Board the Royal Catherine at Chatham, to serve in her, on Board of which Ship his Royal Highness has order'd their Wages to be paid them before the sails from the North.

Her Majesty's Ships the Somerset, Royal Oak, Russell, Firme, Resolution, Ipswich and Norhamberland, being order'd to proceed forthwith to Sea; These are therefore to give Notice, That 'tis the Commands of his Royal Highness Prince George of Denmark, &c. Lord High Admiral of England, &c. That such of the Men belonging to the aforesaid Ships as are now in Town, or otherwise absent from them, do immediately repair to their said Ships at Portsmouth, where they will be paid to the first of July last past, before they sail from Spithead.

It being resolv'd, That 100 Seamen more, such as have been Disabled in the Service of the Navy, shall be forthwith Received and Provided for in Her Majesty's Royal Hospital at Greenwich; His Royal Highness, Lord High Admiral of England, has command'd this Notice to be given thereof, that so all such Persons, whose Conditions entitle them to the Benefit of the aforesaid Hospital, may attend at the Admiralty-Office, on Friday the 28th of this Month.

Whereas a Letter was sent by the Penny-Post to one of the Secretaries of State, subscribed with these two Letters, W.B. If the Person who wrote the said Letter will come himself, or send Word where he may be spoke with, he shall receive Satisfaction in what he proposes in the said Letter.

If any Able-bodied Men are willing to serve Her Majesty in the Train of Artillery abroad, let them repair to Captain Silver, Master-Gunner of England, at his House in St. James's Park, they shall enter into present Pay of Seven Shillings a Week, and be farther Encouraged and Advanc'd as they shall deserve.

By the Receiver-General for Prizes.

Notice is hereby given, That the Officers and Companies of Her Majesty's Ship the Orford, will on Monday the 31st of December Instant, the Litchfield on Wednesday the 2d, and the Warlight on Thursday the 3d, of January next, be paid their Proportion of Gamage and Turnage of the Ship Hazardous, a French Man of War; according to the Directions in Her Majesty's most Gracious Declaration and Encouragements of Her Ships of War, &c.
