TREASURY

Treasury Chambers,
London S.W.1.

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that They have made an Order under sections 9 and 13 of, and the Fifth Schedule to, the Import Duties Act, 1958, and by paragraph 2 of the Sixth Schedule to that Act, viz. The Import Duty Drawbacks (No. 10) Order, 1959, which:

- (1) provides for the allowance of a new drawback of import duty paid on certain waxed paper cantons, used for the exportation of syrup;
- (2) alters the rates of drawback on leather of certain descriptions used in the manufacture of exported boots, shoes etc. and of certain other exported leather goods, and in that connection slightly restricts the descriptions of leather qualifying for drawback;
- (3) reduces the rate of drawback on fibre hard-board used in the manufacture of exported flush doors, and provides for the allowance of a new drawback on plywood used in the manufacture of such doors;
- (4) alters the rates of drawback on certain descriptions of paper used in the manufacture of exported paper bags, and in that connection slightly enlarges the descriptions of paper qualifying for drawback. It also provides for the allowance of new drawbacks on certain descriptions of paper used in the manufacture of exported confectionery cases and on pulp-board used in the manufacture of exported plates and trays;
- (5) reduces the rate of drawback on wooden veneer sheets and sheets for plywood used in the manufacture of exported picking sticks for weaving looms, and

(6) reduces the rate of drawback on imported sodium chlorate used in the manufacture of exported weed-killer.

The Order comes into operation on 16th November 1959, and has been published as Statutory Instruments 1959, No. 1879.

Copies may be purchased (price 4d. net) direct from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, at the addresses shown on the last page of this Gazette or through any bookseller.

HOMICIDE ACT, 1957

An Inquisition indented, taken for our Sovereign Lady the Queen, at H.M. Prison, Wandsworth, pursuant to the directions of "The Capital Punishment Amendment Act, 1868," on the 5th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-nine, before Gavin Leonard Bourdas Thurston, Coroner of our said Lady the Queen for the County of London, on view of the body of Gunter Fritz Erwin Podola, now here lying dead at Her Majesty's Prison, Wandsworth, S.W.18, within the Jurisdiction of the said Coroner, upon the oaths of the undersigned Jurors, good and lawful men of the said County of London, who being now here duly chosen, sworn, and charged to enquire, for our said Lady the Queen, when, where, and in what manner, the said Gunter Fritz Erwin Podola, came to his death, say upon their oaths that the said Gunter Fritz Erwin Podola, was a Prisoner in the said Prison, indicted and convicted for the murder of Raymond William Purdy, and sentenced to death for the said offence, after the passing of the said Statute. And that judgment of death was duly executed and carried into effect upon the said offender, for the said offence, on the day and year aforesaid, within the walls of the said Prison in which the said offender was confined at the time of execution. And the Jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do further say that this Inquest is now here held, on view of the body of the said offender, by the Coroner of the Jurisdiction to which the said Prison belongs, within twenty-four hours after the execution; and that the body of the said Gunter Fritz Erwin Podola, now here lying dead, is the identical body of the said offender, who was so convicted and executed for the offence aforesaid. And that the said offender, at the time of his death was a male person, of the age of thirty years, and a photographer.

In Testimony whereof the said Coroner and Jurors have hereunto set their hands and seals the day, year and place above written.

Here follow the signatures of the coroner and jurors.
