

Health, the opening of any new burial ground in the Borough of Godmanchester in the County of Huntingdon save with the previous approval of the Minister of Housing and Local Government, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein as hereinafter directed has, in pursuance of an Order in Council made the nineteenth day of October 1959, and duly published, been taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section one of the Burial Act, 1853 (16 & 17 Vict. c. 134), and of all other powers Her enabling, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. No new burial ground shall be opened in the said Borough of Godmanchester save with the previous approval of the Minister of Housing and Local Government, and burials shall be discontinued therein as follows, viz.:

Godmanchester.—Forthwith and entirely in the Churchyard of St. Mary the Virgin, in the said Borough of Godmanchester.

Provided that—

(a) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said Churchyard, burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b) In any earthen grave now existing in the said Churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

2. This Order may be cited as the Burial Grounds (Godmanchester) Order, 1959.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of December 1959.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council Whereas the Minister of Housing and Local Government, after giving to the Incumbent and Churchwardens of the Parish of Hipswell, in the County of the North Riding of Yorkshire, ten days' previous notice of his intention in that behalf, has, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by subsequent enactments, made a Representation to Her Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the Public Health, the opening of any new burial ground in the Civil Parish of Hipswell, in the said County of the North Riding of Yorkshire, save with the previous approval of the Minister of Housing and Local Government, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein as follows, viz.:

Hipswell.—Forthwith and entirely in the Churchyard of St. John, Hipswell, Catterick Camp, in the said Parish,

Provided that—

(a) In any earthen grave now existing in the said Churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the bodies of Rhona Squires, Ada Thompson, Amelia Thorpe, Martha Bramham, Jane Metcalfe, Margaret Ellen Burn, Elsie Grace McLehland and John William Dawson.

(b) In the said Churchyard, in a grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed of the body of Lillian Metcalfe for whom such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein.

Subject in each case to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give Notice of such Representation and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 22nd day of February next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation one month before the said 22nd day of February.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 21st day of December 1959.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council Whereas there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 2nd day of December 1959 (N.C.W./MAN.516/59) in the words following, viz.:

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, among other things, that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Forces to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we consider it necessary to establish, for entry initially in the Electrical (Air) and Radio Electrical (Air) categories of the Electrical Branch of Your Majesty's Navy, and subsequently in other categories and branches as required, a new technical rating with the title of Mechanician Apprentice, with appropriate conditions of pay and advancement:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to establish the rating of Mechanician Apprentice, with appropriate conditions of pay and advancement, for entry initially in the Electrical (Air) and Radio Electrical (Air) categories of the Electrical Branch, and subsequently in other categories and branches as required:

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence with these proposals."

Her Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 21st day of December 1959.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council Whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 19th day of November 1959, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Church Patronage Act, 1870, and of the Acts therein mentioned, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of an one-third interest in the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the benefice of Thanington with Milton in the County of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury:

"SCHEME

"Whereas:

"1. By virtue of an Order of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council dated the 17th day of October 1884, and published in the London Gazette on the 24th day of October 1884, the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, in right of his See, became entitled to two turns in every three turns of presentation or nomination to the said benefice:

"2. We are satisfied that William Brett, Esquire, of Norton Court near Sittingbourne in the County of Kent, is the patron or person entitled to the remaining one turn in every three turns of presentation or nomination to the said benefice:

"3. The said William Brett desires to transfer his interest in the advowson of the said benefice to the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being and consents to this Scheme (in testimony whereof he has executed the same):

"4. We are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:
