"3. Parsonage House

"(a) Upon the union taking effect and pending the provision of a new house approved by us as suitable to be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice, the parsonage house now belonging to the benefice of Westcote Barton shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"(b) Without prejudice to the exercise before the date when the union takes effect of any of the powers conferred by the Parsonages Measures, 1938 and 1947, the parsonage house now belonging to the benefice of Steeple Barton and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be sold and disposed of by us at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient.

"(c) So much of the net proceeds of such sale or sales as we, after consulting with the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese, shall deem necessary shall be applied by us towards the cost of providing a new house of residence as aforesaid and any balance of the said net proceeds shall be held by us on behalf of the united benefice as endowment capital and subject to the provisions of the Benefices (Stabilization of Incomes) Measure, 1951; provided that until the said net proceeds shall have been applied in the manner aforesaid any interest arising thereon or on any part thereof shall be paid by us to the incumbent of the united benefice as benefice income.

"4. Patronage. After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercised by the patrons of the two benefices alternately, the patron of the benefice of Westcote Barton having the first presentation to the united benefice to be made after the union.

by the said Reverend James Wilmot Griffiths, which-ever shall be the later date, be paid to and be held by us for the benefit of the diocesan stipends fund of the said diocese, provided that if after the date upon which the union shall take effect any additional capital endowment shall accrue to or be acquired by the united benefice (not being capital endowment derived from the sale of any property of the united benefice) the income from such subsequently acquired capital endowment shall not be taken into account for the purpose of calculating such surplus as aforesaid.

"(2) The said endowment income and the said surplus and the said annual sum of £850 shall be deemed to accrue from day to day and shall when we deem that circumstances so require be apportionable accordingly.

"(3) Any moneys due to us from the incumbent of the united benefice, or, during any vacancy in the united benefice, from the sequestrators thereof, as the case may be (hereinafter called 'the incumbent or sequestrators') upon the calculation of the said surplus shall be paid by the incumbent or sequestrators to us not later than the 30th June in each year and shall be recoverable as a debt to us.

"(4) For the purpose of ascertaining the amounts of the said endowment income and of the said surplus, we shall have power to require production by the incumbent or sequestrators of accounts and other documents in relation thereto, and the said accounts for the twelve months to 31st March in each year (or where applicable for a part of the year ending on that date) shall be rendered annually to us within six weeks of that date in such form as we shall prescribe; and in the event of failure by the incumbent or sequestrators to produce such accounts or documents we shall have all legal remedies for enforcing production thereof.

Notice of submission of Preliminary Draft Regulations entitled The National Insurance (Assessment of Graduated Contributions) Regulations, 1960.

In accordance with section 77 of the National Insurance Act, 1946, the National Insurance Advisory Committee give notice that they have received from the Minister of Pensions and National Insurance for consideration and report thereon the preliminary draft of regulations entitled the National Insurance (Assessment of Graduated Contributions) Regulations, 1960.

A short explanatory note on these regulations is appended to this notice.

Copies of the preliminary draft of these regulations may be purchased directly (price 9d.) from Her Majesty's Stationery Office at the addresses shown on the last page of this Gazette, or through any bookseller.

The Committee will take into consideration any objection, made by or on behalf of persons affected, received by them not later than Tuesday, 8th March 1960. Objections should be addressed to the Secretary, National Insurance Advisory Committee, 10 John Adam Street, London W.C.2.

Ifor Evans, Chairman.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The provisions of these Regulations supplement those in sections 1 and 2 of the National Insurance Act, 1959, determining the liability for graduated contributions. They prescribe the manner in which the contributions payable are to be calculated and the treatment of remuneration not paid weekly. They make provision as to the contributions properly payable where an employed person has two or more employments and specify the payments which are not to be taken into account in deciding, for graduated contribution purposes, the amount of a person's remuneration. The Regulations include provision for securing that contribution liability is not avoided or reduced by the use of abnormal pay practices.
