

dered provision to be made for their reception and maintenance in the Towns of Pola and Parenzo in Istria: the Archbishop of Candia being deprived of his Charge, has upon application to the Senate, obtained the Church of St Gregory in this City, whose revenues are to be assigned towards the support of his Dignity, and two of the Canons of the said Church are dispatched to Rome to procure power from the Pope for the settlement thereof.

From the Levant we are told, that a Turkish Corsair had lately since the Treaty seized on a Tartar a Christian Vessel, and carried her into Lepanto as prize, of which complaint being made to the Bassa of those parts, the Vessel and Goods were presently ordered to be restored; but the Corsair dissatisfied with the loss of what he thought to have made his own, put out again to sea and seized another Christian ship which he carried away with him for Barbary.

The Senate have lately ordered the dismissal of several ships which they had hired for their service during the war, and the unloading of several others that were designed for Candia.

Vienna, Nov. 8. The Fort near Comorra being by the Emperours permission, slighted, that the Turks might not upon that account take an occasion to violate the League; we find now that they are yet satisfied, but are like to insist with as much eagerness upon the demolishing of our new Fort of Leopoldstadt near Neubausl, to which the interest of our Territories will not easily permit us to comply.

These and other considerations oblige the Emperour to give out strict Orders for the reinforcement of all our frontier Garrisons, being much feared lest the Turkish force being diverted from the Venetians may search an employment to our disturbance; for which end General Montecuculi is speedily to return into Hungary to give such Orders as are necessary for the furnishing our Magazines, the strengthening of our Garrisons, and the completing and reparation of our fortifications; and since we have had intelligence that Moravia was in danger to be over-run by the Turks, the Regiment of Rabatta was ordered to march to the River Waag to oppose them in their passage, if they should proceed in such a design.

The 6th instant the Court appeared in extraordinary Gallantry, in Compliment to his Catholick Majesty whose Birth-day it was.

We talk here of a great change of Officers in this Court, the Prince Lobkowitz to be declared Chief Minister of State; Count Lambert to be promoted to the Charge of Great Master of the Emperours Household, his vacant Office of Great Chamberlain to be conferred upon the Master of the Horse, he to be succeeded by the Count d' Harath, and the Prince d' Aversberg to have the inspection of all the affairs of Austria, Stiria, Carinthia, and Carniola, with some other places.

The Popes Nuncio has not altogether discouraged the Emperour from soliciting the Pope for an equal share of his kindness with the Crowns of France, Spain and Poland, in conferring a Cap at his Nomination upon the Prince de Baden Doullac, of which the Emperour desires speedy satisfaction, and the 3d instant dispatch an Express to Rome to know the Popes final resolution in that particular.

Brussels, Nov. 26. The Constable of Castille, being informed that the French forces are by Order from His most Christian Majesty drawing towards the frontiers; and that more than ordinary care is lately taken to furnish the Magazines in the new Conquests with all sorts of necessaries for the war, has thought it fit also to take care for the reinforcing such of his Garrisons as lie most exposed to danger, and particularly has ordered two Tercias of Spanish Foot to march to Ipres, where the Citadel is well advanced and near perfection; and on Sunday last one Regiment of Foot marched to Valenciennes, and another to Conde.

Yesterday arrived Don Antonio de Cordoua, Lieutenant-General of the Horse, with a List of such Regiments and Companies as have been lately Reformed. The Deputies of Artois have made an agreement with Don Antonio Pimentel to entertain 3 thousand Foot and 3 hundred Horse.

Since the death of Don Fernando Solis late Governour of the Castle of Antwerp Don Antonio Pimentel is for the present appointed to take Charge of the Government.

The University of Louvain having been taxed by the Pope with a Breach of their Statutes, and consequently with the forfeiture of the Priviledges granted them by his Predecessor Pope Paul V. instancing in many particulars in a Book printed for that purpose; the University have lately published their answer by way of vindication; which not satisfying, the Popes Interuncio has summon'd them to appear by their Deputies in Rome before Christmas, there to make their defence, or else to expect Sentence, which the University refuses, pretending the matter on which the dispute is grounded, relates to the Civil power; and that they cannot make the appearance required without leave from His Catholick Majesty.

Hague, Novemb. 29. On Wednesday last the two Marshalls of the Camp, Prince Maurice, and the Heer Wurts went to the Assembly of the States of Holland, where they had a long Conference about the raising of the New Forces, which they seem resolv'd to put into speedy execution. The Council of State having given in their Judgments for the necessity of Raising of 14 thousand Men, Viz. ten Regiments of Foot and 4 of Horse; the report whereof has fill'd this place with Officers, who come to offer their service to the States, who have already published the Capitulation to be observed by such of them as shall be entertained in their service.

'Tis confidently said, that his most Christian Majesty has demanded of the States Restitution of all Estates belonging to the Ecclesiasticks within the Territory of Hulst.

The States are now upon the Nomination of several Persons to be sent into England, France, Spain and Poland, under the character of Ambassadors; the Heer Marshall the Swedes Minister intends in few days to return Home.

Plymouth, Nov. 19. Yesterday and on Wednesday put into this Port 17 sail of ships, most of them English from Burdeaux, bound for London and others of our Ports; the rest of them Dutch and French ships, all of them expecting the opportunity of a fair wind to invite them out to sea to compleat their voyages.

Eims, Novemb. 21. Yesterday arrived here the Francis of this place from Morlatz, telling us, That an Order has been Publickly Read in all the Churches and Publick places of that Town, strictly commanding all Seamen to make their Appearance, and to Enroll themselves in His Majesties Service, according to His Majesties late Edict for that purpose.

On Saturday last was put in here by contrary Windes a small Fregat of Haver de grace.

The Charity of London, bound hither from the Canaries, is now in Torbay, and may take the opportunity of the first High-water to put into this Harbour.

London, Novemb. 24. This following Alteration has been lately made by His Majesty in the List of Sheriffs for the year ensuing, Viz.

Cornwall ,	Jo. Connocke, Esq;
Nottingham ,	Tho. Lewes, Esq;
Warwick ,	Sir Robert Dryden, Baronet.
Merioneth ,	John Vaughan, Esq;

Edinburgh, Nov. 16. 1669, was made publick, An Act asserting His Majesties Supremacy over all Persons, and in all Causes Ecclesiastical, to which the Reader is refer'd.
