

"2. Taking effect of union. If upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the benefices of Tingewick and Water Stratford shall both be vacant the union shall forthwith take effect; and if upon that day one only of the said benefices of Tingewick and Water Stratford shall be vacant, the union shall take effect immediately upon the next avoidance of the other of the said two benefices; and if upon that day neither of the said two benefices shall be vacant, the union shall take effect immediately upon the first avoidance of that one of the two benefices which shall last be avoided after that date.

"3. Parsonage House. Without prejudice to the exercise before the date when the union takes effect of any of the powers conferred by the Parsonages Measures, 1938 and 1947, upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Tingewick shall if at that date it so belongs to the said benefice be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"4. Patronage. After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercised by the patrons of the two benefices alternately, the patron of the benefice of Water Stratford having the first presentation to the united benefice to be made after the union."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 11th day of May 1960.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 4th day of May 1960, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Oliver, Bishop of Bristol, (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme) for effecting the union of the benefice of Nettleton and the benefice of Littleton Drew, both situate in the diocese of Bristol.

" SCHEME

"1. Union of Benefices:

The benefice of Nettleton and the benefice of Littleton Drew shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Nettleton with Littleton Drew' but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of Union:

If upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette both of the said benefices shall be vacant the union shall forthwith take effect, and if upon that day the benefice of Nettleton only shall be vacant, the union shall also take effect forthwith if the incumbent at that date of the benefice of Littleton Drew shall consent to be the first incumbent of the united benefice, but if he shall not so consent, the union shall take effect immediately upon the next avoidance of the benefice of Littleton Drew.

"3. Parsonage House:

Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Littleton Drew shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"4. Patronage:

After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercised by the patrons of the two benefices alternately, and if upon the day when the union takes effect both of the said two benefices shall be vacant the patron of the benefice of Littleton Drew shall have the first presentation to the united benefice to be made after the union, but if upon that day the benefice of Nettleton only shall be vacant the patron of the benefice of Nettleton shall have the first presentation to the united benefice to be made after the union."

And Whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And Whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 16th day of December 1959, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Launcelot, Bishop of Portsmouth (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), for authorising the demolition of the church of Saint Giles, Blendworth, in the diocese of Portsmouth.

" SCHEME

"As soon as conveniently may be after the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette:

"1. The church of Saint Giles, being a chapel of ease in the parish of Blendworth, shall be demolished and the materials of the said church shall be sold and disposed of by us, the said Church Commissioners, at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient.

"2. The net proceeds to arise from such sale shall be placed to the credit of the Expenses Fund of the diocese of Portsmouth established pursuant to the 32nd Section of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.
