

Public Health, the opening of any new burial ground in the Civil Parish of Sharlston, in the said County of the West Riding of Yorkshire, save with the previous approval of the Minister of Housing and Local Government, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein as follows, viz.:

Sharlston—Forthwith and entirely in Sharlston Churchyard in the said Parish, Provided that—

In any earthen grave now existing in the said Churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give Notice of such Representation and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 5th day of July next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation one month before the said 5th day of July.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of May 1960.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by the Servants of the Crown (Parliamentary Candidature) Order, 1950, provision was made for regulating the right of servants of the Crown to become candidates at Parliamentary elections;

And whereas it appears expedient to Her Majesty, on representations made to Her by the Treasury, the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the Admiralty, the Army Council and the Air Council, to make further provision in relation to the matter aforesaid:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1.—(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (2) of this Article, this Order shall apply to any person who for the time being is employed in the civil service of the Crown, whether in an established capacity or not and whether for the whole or part of his time, or is a member of any of the regular armed forces of the Crown or an officer of the Territorial Army in receipt of a consolidated allowance under the Regulations for the Territorial Army.

(2) This Order shall not apply to:

(a) a person, being an officer on the retired or emergency list of any of the regular armed forces of the Crown, or holding an emergency commission in any of those forces, or belonging to any reserve of officers of any of those forces, by reason of his being a member of those forces;

(b) a naval, army, marine or air force pensioner, who is recalled for service for which he is liable as such, by reason of his being a member of the regular armed forces of the Crown;

(c) an Admiral of the Fleet, a Field Marshal or a Marshal of the Royal Air Force, if he does not for the time being hold an appointment in the naval, military, air or civil service of the Crown;

(d) a person who is a member of the Royal Observer Corps, by reason of his being such a member, unless he is employed as such for the whole of his time;

(e) a person employed in an industrial grade or in such a grade as may from time to time be certified by the Department concerned with the approval of the Treasury to be an industrial grade for the purposes of this Order;

(f) a person employed in such a grade as may from time to time be certified by the Department concerned with the approval of the Treasury to be a minor and manipulative grade for the purposes of this Order, not being a person employed in a constabulary under the control of the Admiralty, Army Council or Air Council.

2. Subject to the provisions of Article 3 hereof, no person to whom this Order applies shall issue an address to electors or in any other manner publicly announce himself or allow himself to be publicly announced as a candidate or prospective candidate for election to Parliament for any constituency.

3. A person who is, by virtue of the National Service Act, 1948, serving for a term of whole-time service in the Royal Navy, the Royal Marines, the Army or the Royal Air Force, may publicly announce himself or allow himself to be publicly announced as a candidate or prospective candidate for election to Parliament for any constituency, but shall not, while so serving, issue an address to electors or in any other way actively participate in any political activities.

4. In this Order the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them:

"civil service of the Crown" includes Her Majesty's Foreign Service;

"regular armed forces of the Crown" means the Royal Navy, the regular forces as defined by section 225 of the Army Act, 1955, the regular air force as defined by section 223 of the Air Force Act, 1955, the Women's Royal Naval Service, Queen Alexandra's Royal Naval Nursing Service and Voluntary Aid Detachments serving with the Royal Navy.

5.—(1) This Order applies to women as it applies to men.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

6.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Servants of the Crown (Parliamentary Candidature) Order, 1960.

(2) The Servants of the Crown (Parliamentary Candidature) Order, 1950, is hereby revoked.
