Constantinople, Dec. 26. N. S.

THE Turkish and Muscovite Commissioners for settling the Limits between the Dominions of the Czar of Muscovy and the Grand Signior have agreed upon those between the Rivers Bog and Boristhenes, which was esteemed the most difficult part of their Negotiation, the Limits which remain to be marked out from the Boristhenes to the Palus Mæotis being left subject to Disputes. The Territories of the Muscovites, as this Affair is now adjusted, extend themselves along the Bugg to that Place where those of Poland begin on the opposite Bank; and the Turks have only reserved to themselves a Tract of Land along the Coast of the Black Sea, for their Communication by Land with Cüm Tartary. This being the Moon of Ramezan, during which it is the Custom of the Turks to fast by day, and feast by night, there happened, thro' the Negligence of the Leventz, or Seamen, a Fire in one of the Wood-Yards of our Arsenal, which, besides the Timber there, burnt two Gallies that lay upon the Stocks, and damaged one or two of the great Ships that were close to the Shore. If the Wind, which blew directly upon the Ships, had been stronger, a good part of the Fleet might have been destroyed. The Grand Signior, as is customary upon such Occasions, went thither in Person, and understanding in what Danger his Fleet had been, he called for Abdulman, the Captain Bassaw, or Admiral of his Fleet, a French Renegade, and ask'd him how this Accident had happened: The Captain Bassaw was in so much Confusion, that he was not able to answer a Word; whereupon the Sultan commanded him to be strangled, which was done immediately, and his Body lay exposed upon the Place all yesterday. It is usual for this Government to make those suffer for all Misfortunes who are in the highest Trust; but this further Reason is given for the Captain Bassaw's Disgrace, that the Grand Signior had been lately informed, that he being in a necessitous Condition, used several indirect Means to enrich himself; and among others would detain the Pay of the Leventz from them, which, besides the Injustice of it, might have occasioned a Mutiny among them, and proved of ill Consequence to his Service.

Milan, Febr. 20. The Forces on both sides continue in their former Posts, in the Brescian, the Veronese, and the Polesine. The Duke of Savoy's Troops which were at Nice, when the French took that Place, are to remain in Garison at Coni, and they are to be commanded by the Count de Santenaz, who was Governor of Montmeillan. His Royal Highness has given Directions for repairing and augmenting the Fortifications of Coni, and strengthening them with new Works. Preparations are making here for the fitting out of a Train of Artillery; and they are buying Horses to remount the Cavalry of this State.

Venice, Febr. 20. The French continue to fortify the Banks of the Oglio: They have lately reinforced their Troops in the Polesine, as the Germans have done theirs in the Veronese, where they have secured themselves of a Place called St. Bonifacio, having posted a Guard of 200 Men there. A considerable Sum of Money was brought last week to Salò for the Use of the German Forces; and the Bagage of General Raventlau, Baron Martini, and some other Officers of Note, who are coming from Germany, is also arrived there.

Warsaw, Febr. 19. The King of Poland marched from hence with his Troops yesterday towards Lowitz, where it is said his Majesty will rest 4 or 5 days, and afterwards advance further into the Greater Poland. Our last Letters from Lithuania say, That the King of Sweden's Army was still in its former Camp, eight Leagues beyond Grodno.

Vienna, February 20. On the 16th Instant a considerable number of Recruits were sent from hence to Newstad, to compleat the Imperial Regiments which are now under the Command of General Palfy. Yesterday two Companies of Foot marched thither; and three Regiments are lately arrived in our Neighbourhood from Bavaria, that are also to join him; after which he will advance towards Oedenbourg and Eysenstad, to attack the Malecontents who block up those two Places. They write from Transilvania, That the Imperial Troops were still before the Castle of Deva, and had reduced it to great Streights. General Kriechbaum arrived here two days ago from Munich, having left all very quiet in those Parts; and the necessary Measures are taken for preserving the publick Tranquillity there.

Ratisbon, Febr. 25. Count Lewenstein, Governor of Bavaria for the Emperor, is on his Departure from Munich towards Donawert, to receive the Homage of that Town in the Name of his Imperial Majesty, and intends to proceed from thence to Vienna. The Troops of Wirtemberg, which have been in Quarters of Refreshment in Bavaria, are returning home, some by the way of Rain and Donawert, and the rest by that of Riedberg and Augsburg. They write from Tirol, That Prince Charles of Newbourg, whom the Emperor has lately made Governor of that Country, arrived the 18th Instant at Inspruck, to take Possession of that Government. The Regiment of Wolfenbuttle, consisting of all chosen Men, and very well clothed, had lately passed thro' Inspruck in its March to Italy, whither several Regiments more of the Imperial and Confederate Forces will follow in a very short time.

Frankfort, Febr. 28. The Diet of the Circle of the Upper Rhine, which is assembled here, has come to several Resolutions in relation to the Forces they are to have on foot for the next Summer's Service, which are to be more numerous than their usual Quota, and they design to bring them very early into the Field. The States of the Circle of Swabia are likewise to meet shortly at Memmingen, to consult upon several Matters relating to their Troops. Field-Marshal Count Gronsfield arrived here the 26th Instant. Monsieur Geldermalsen, Envoy from the States General, set out from hence yesterday for the Court of the Landgrave of Hesse-Cassel. They write from Landau, That our Generals having received Advice the 24th, that the Enemy were in motion, they immediately gave Orders for reinforcing the Posts of Ingweiler and Pfaffenhoven, and drew up a considerable Body of Troops, which marched towards Haguenau: But it appearing the Enemy had no other Design than the posting of some Troops between Strasbourg and Elfas-Sabern, for the Security of a Convoy of Provisions they were bringing to the former of these Places, and that the intercepting of it was impracticable, our Forces were sent back to their Quarters. A Person was lately seized going from Fort Louis to Strasbourg, and a very pressing Letter was found about him from the Commander of that Fort to the Governor of Strasbourg, setting forth the great Streights the Garison is reduced to, being in want almost of all Necessaries, and praying that a sufficient Body of Troops might be sent to his Relief. Prince Lewis is expected from Rattad in a day or two at Landau, to give the necessary Directions for the disposing of our Troops in the best manner to prevent the Enemy's succeeding in this, or any other Attempt they might make.

Hague, March 5. N. S. Orders are issued for all the Officers in the Service of this State, who are in Town, to be in a readiness to repair to their respective Commands upon the first Notice they shall receive. Letters from Paris, which came in this day, confirm the good News we had before from Madrid, of the Earl of Peterborough's Success in Catalonia. They add, That an Express was come from Madrid with a Proposal concerning the Measures to be taken for putting a stop to the Progresses of the Allies in Spain, which had been disapproved at the French Court; and that this would occasion some Delay in their Preparations. They write from the North, That the Czar left Moscow the 28th of January, in order to put himself at the head of his Army in Lithuania.

Falmouth, Febr. 23. The Expedition Packet-Boat, Captain Clyes Commander, arrived here the 19th Instant from Lisbon, having in his Passage home engaged a French Privateer of 26 Guns, with whom he had a very sharp Dispute for two hours; after which the French Privateer was forced to leave him, being very much shattered, and having several of his Men killed. Those on board the Packet-Boat fought with great Resolution, and the Captain, with 25 more, were wounded, and 4 were killed. The same day came in here the Three Swans, a Swedish Ship, Alexander Horn Master, bound for Lisbon. This day came in the Catharine and Margaret, Maurice Clafey Master, laden with Beef from Dublin.

Yarmouth, Febr. 25. The Rochester Prize and Possillion sailed out of our Road the 21st Instant with the Ships bound for Hull. Several light Dutch Doggers came into our Road from Holland the 23d, and failed the same day for Newcastle.

Hull, Febr. 23. A Fleet of Merchant-men bound for this Port, under Convoy of Her Majesty's Ships, the Rochester Prize and Possillion, arrived here yesterday about noon.

Plymouth, Febr. 24. Yesterday came in here the Fairfax of London, laden with Wine and Fruit from Lisbon. This afternoon passed by our Harbour Her Majesty's Ships the Exeter, La Firme and Squirrel, with several Vessels under their Convoy, bound for Ireland.

Dartmouth, Febr. 24. Her Majesty's Ships, with the Vessels under their Convoy which lay at Torbay, failed thence last night. This day came in here the Ship Marlborough of London, Laurence Prince Commander, homeward bound from Jamaica, whence she came the 13th of December last, in Company of the Bonaventure, Captain Beesley, and the Dover Galley, Captain Jackson, Commanders, and was separated from them the 25th of the last Month in the Latitude of 34 Degrees. When this Ship came away from Jamaica, Vice-Admiral Whetstone was there with the Men of War under his Command, and several Merchant Ships; and the Place was very healthy. The same day came in the Elizabeth and Hannah, commanded by Robert Chace, and the Lucy Galley by Captain Baker, both belonging to London, and homeward bound with Wine and Fruit from Oporto.

Portsmouth, Febr. 26. The Chatham and Moderate Men of War arrived at Spithead last Thursday in the evening, with about 40 Sail under their Convoy from the Downes.

Whereas the Men which did belong to Her Majesty's late Ships the Pendermis, Blackwall, Sorlings and Flamborough, are directed to repair aboard the Ships hereunder mentioned, where their Wages are ordered to be paid them; viz.

The Men that did belong to the	Pendermis, Blackwall, Sorlings, Flamborough,	Royal Katherine, at Blackstake. Triumph, at Portsmouth. Albermarle, at Portsmouth.
