STATE INTELLIGENCE

HONOURS AND AWARDS

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD

St. James's Palace, London S.W.1.
20th September 1960.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to give orders for the following appointment to The Most Excellent Order of the British Empire:

To be an Additional Member of the Military Division of the said Most Excellent Order, For Gallantry:

Major Henry Percival QUALTROUGH (304206),
Corps of Royal Engineers.

Between October 1959 and March 1960 Major QUALTROUGH took personal charge of the dangerous stages in the work of disposing of three unexploded bombs. The impact nose fuze of one being distorted and immovable he took the bomb in a truck to the docks and embarked it in a landing craft and dumped it at sea. A second bomb was found to have, in addition to its nose fuze, what appeared to be a chemical delay fuze in its tail. Major QUALTROUGH removed this fuze by remote means. He personally supervised the removal of nose and tail fuzes from the third bomb.

The bombs were identified as being of American type, dropped in 1944 or 1945. They did not, however, conform exactly to the data available in instructional manuals, and the presence of Chinese markings on one fuze indicated the possibility of unrecorded variations in design. The age of the bombs and the lack of reliable information intensified the element of hazard always present in this type of operation.

Major QUALTROUGH, by his confident handling of each incident and his gallant disregard for his own safety, gave great encouragement to those who assisted him in this dangerous work.

PRIVY COUNCIL OFFICE

At the Court at Balmoral the 12th day of September 1960.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 24th day of August 1960 (N.P. 1159/60) in the words following, viz.:

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Forces to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Order in Council of 31st October 1956, scales and conditions have been laid down for the award of pensions and gratuities to the widows and children of deceased Officers, Petty Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Men in respect of service in the Royal Navy and Royal Marines:

"And whereas we deem it expedient that revised scales and conditions should be introduced for the award of pensions to the widows and children of deceased Officers, Petty Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Men in respect of service in the Royal Navy and Royal Marines:

"We beg humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to authorise us to award pensions at the rates and subject to the conditions in the Schedule annexed hereto:

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals:

" SCHEDULE

" SECTION I

" Outline of the Forces Family Pensions Scheme

"The family pensions and other awards provided for in this Schedule are those payable in respect of the service of deceased Officers, Chief Petty Officers, Petty Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Men of the Royal Navy and the Royal Marines, as distinct from the awards which are payable in respect of deaths which are due to service.

"2. Except where otherwise stated, the term 'Officers' in this Schedule should be read as including commissioned officers of the Royal Navy and of the Royal Marines and 'R.N. ratings and R.M. other ranks' should be read as including Chief Petty Officers, Petty Officers and other ratings of the Royal Navy and Non-Commissioned Officers and other ranks of the Royal Marines.

"3. Subject to the detailed regulations set out below, family pensions may be paid to eligible members of the families of deceased Officers, R.N. ratings and R.M. other ranks who were entitled by service to half pay, retired pay or service pension, or, where death occurred during service, would have been so entitled had they been invalided on the day they died.

"4. Family pensions payable in respect of service are at higher or lower rates (referred to hereafter as 'ordinary' and 'modified' pensions respectively) according to whether the family is receiving a pension in respect of death due to service (referred to hereafter as an 'attributable' pension). If an 'attributable' pension has not been awarded an 'ordinary' family pension will be payable but if an 'attributable' pension has been awarded a 'modified' family pension will be payable.

" SECTION II
" Family Pensions

" 5. The provisions of this section are effective from 1st April 1959, and are applicable to the widows and children of Officers, R.N. ratings and R.M. other ranks whether serving, or retired or discharged, who die on or after 4th November 1958, provided the officer, rating or other rank was granted, or was entitled to, half pay, service retired pay or pension, or if death occurs whilst serving would have been so entitled had he been invalided on the date of death; provided also in the case of R.N. ratings and R.M. other ranks (excepting Regimental Sergeant Majors, Royal Marines) that service reckonable for pension was given after 31st August 1950.

" 6. 'Ordinary' Family Pensions. If the death of the husband was not due to service and the family is not receiving an 'attributable' pension, an 'ordinary' family pension, at the rates set out below may be granted:

Widows

Except as provided in Clause 7, the rate of Widow's pension will be:

- (a) one-third of the half pay, retired pay or pension (including pensions increase if any) in payment to the husband at the date of death; or where it would be more favourable
- (b) one-third of the rate of half pay, retired pay or pension which would have been in payment on that date if the husband had already qualified for pensions increase, and subject to Clause 20, disregarding any commutation which may have been made; or
- (c) when death occurs while serving, one-third of the rate of half pay, retired pay or pension which would have been awarded if the husband had been invalided on the date on which he died, provided in the case of officers' widows that if the officer died before 1st April 1960, but gave service on or after 1st February 1960, the rate of widow's pension will, from 1st April 1960, or the date of commencement of pension if later, be one-third of the rate of retired pay for which the husband would have become eligible on 1st April 1960.

Children

Each child one-third, or if motherless two-thirds, of the pension awarded to the widow, or which would have been awarded to the widow had she been alive and eligible for an award under this section.

" 7. Minimum Rates of 'Ordinary' Family Pensions

If the rates of pension calculated in accordance with Clause 6 would be less than those set out below, the latter will be payable:

" 10. Supplements to 'Modified' Family Pensions

(a) Where, but for the pension or allowances awarded on the ground that the husband's death was due to service, a widow would have received a National Insurance award, the Admiralty may grant a supplementary pension equal to the amount by which the widow's 'attributable' pension and the 'modified' family pension falls short of an award of 'ordinary' family pension, together with the National Insurance award and a lead of £26 a year in the case of the widow of an officer, 7s. 6d. a week in the case of the widow of a Regimental Sergeant Major, Royal Marines, and 5s. 0d. a week in the case of the widow of any other rank or rating.

(b) A supplementary pension for a widow with children will be calculated as if the awards to that widow and children were one award, and may not be calculated as a separate pension for each dependant.

(c) The same lead will apply for a motherless child or children as for the widow and children of an officer of corresponding rank.

(d) A supplementary pension will be assessed on the basis of the awards in payment in the calendar year starting on the date of commencement of the 'modified' family pension granted under clauses 8 or 9, but excluding the amount by which the rate of National Insurance Widow's Allowance would exceed that of subsequent National Insurance Widow's Benefits or does exceed that of the widow's 'attributable' pension. The amount of the supplementary pension will be re-assessed on the cessation of individual children's pensions, but will otherwise normally remain unaltered.

(e) In calculating or re-assessing a supplementary pension any Education or Rent Allowance, or any grants to a widow or unmarried dependant under Order in Council of 13th May, 1959, shall not be taken into account.

" 11. Definition of Rank for the Purposes of Minimum Awards of 'Ordinary' and 'Modified' Family Pensions.

Rank for the purposes of clauses 7 and 9 will be as follows:

(a) Officers. As defined in Clauses 24 and 25 of Schedule 1 to Order in Council of 24th January, 1957, except that the minimum periods laid down in Clause 24 will not apply where an officer dies while serving on the Active List; higher paid acting or temporary rank, and rank held during further service after retirement, will be taken into account to the same extent as for retired pay purposes.

(b) R.N. Ratings and R.M. Other Ranks. The highest paid rank held for an aggregated period of two or more years during the last five years of service preceding termination of full pay service (including service in a higher paid rank of less than two years' duration); or, if more favourable, where the R.N. rating or R.M. other rank was invalidated or died whilst serving the substantive rank held at the time of discharge or death. If a R.N. rating or R.M. other rank who has completed a pensionable engagement is permitted to remain in or re-enter the Service in a lower rank, the rank will be the highest paid rank held for two or more years during the five years preceding the completion of such pensionable engagement if this is more favourable.

" SECTION III*" Conditions Governing the Award of Family Pensions" 12. Pension Cannot be Claimed as a Right.*

(a) A pension cannot be claimed as a right and will not be granted or continued when the applicant is shown to be unworthy of an award from public funds, nor will it be granted if the service of the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank has not been such as, in the opinion of the Admiralty, to justify the award.

(b) If the death of an officer or rating or marine, or the wound, injury or disease which resulted in his death, was due wholly or in part to his own negligence or misconduct or to any cause within his control, any grant which might otherwise be made to his widow or children may be withheld or reduced in amount at the discretion of the Admiralty.

(c) If an Officer retired, dismissed the Service, or called upon to retire for misconduct or inefficiency, or a R.N. rating or R.M. other rank discharged for misconduct or inefficiency was not granted any retired pay or pension in respect of his service, no award will be made to the family. If reduced retired pay or service pension was awarded, the family pension will be at such rate as the Admiralty may determine.

(d) If the applicant is granted any other pension or allowance from public funds on account of the services of the deceased, any pension which might otherwise be granted under this Schedule may be withheld or reduced as the Admiralty may determine.

" 13. Conditions Relating to Marriage

(a) To be eligible for a pension, a widow must have been married to the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank before his retirement or discharge; or, if he subsequently gave further service in circumstances rendering him eligible to be considered for a re-assessment of retired pay or pension, before the termination of such further service.

(b) If the death of the officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank occurred within a year of his marriage, the Admiralty, in the light of the circumstances of the case, may withhold or reduce the award otherwise admissible.

" 14. Effect of Separation on Widow's Pension and Gratuity.

Subject to any exception which the Admiralty may approve in a particular case, an award will not be made to a widow who was separated from her husband at the time of his death. Should such an exception be approved, the award will be at such a rate, and subject to such conditions, as the Admiralty may determine.

" 15. Withholding or Diversion of Pension

In exceptional circumstances the Admiralty may withhold the whole or any part of a pension granted under this Schedule and may divert the whole or part for the benefit of persons dependent on the pensioner.

" 16. Date of Commencement of Pension

The date of commencement of pension will be determined according to the circumstances of the case and will normally, if application is not unduly delayed, be the date following the husband's death; or, if death occurred during service, the date following the termination of allowances issuable after death.

" 17. Belated Claims

An award will not be made if the claim thereto is not established before the death of the person to whom it might have been made and such failure is due to neglect or omission on the part of such person or, if the person is not of adult age, on the part of his or her guardian or other representative.

" 18. Re-marriage

The pension of a widow who re-marries will be suspended, but if she again becomes a widow her pension may be restored in whole or in part at the discretion of the Admiralty, if her pecuniary circumstances justify such restoration.

" 19. Children

(a) A 'child' for the purposes of the award of a pension under this Schedule means:—

(i) A legitimate child of the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank whose mother is, or would have been, eligible for a widow's pension.

(ii) A step child of the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank, whose mother is, or would have been, eligible for a widow's pension, and who was mainly dependent on him at the time of his death.

(iii) A child adopted by the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank, or by his wife, before his retirement or discharge; or, if he subsequently gave further service in circumstances rendering him eligible to be considered for a re-assessment of retired pay or service pension, before the termination of such service; who was mainly dependent on him at the time of his death.

(iv) An illegitimate child of the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank, or of his wife, born before his retirement or discharge to pension; or, if he subsequently gave further service in circumstances rendering him eligible to be considered for a re-assessment of retired pay or service pension, before the termination of such further service; who was mainly dependent upon him at the time of his death.

(b) A child's pension will normally cease when the child attains the age of 18 years in the case of the child of an Officer or a Regimental Sergeant Major, Royal Marines, or the age of 16 years in the case of all other ratings and ranks, but may be granted or continued after those ages:—

(i) if the child continues to receive full-time education, or is an apprentice not receiving more than nominal wages; or

(ii) if, before attaining the age referred to above, the child was, and continues to be afflicted by mental or bodily infirmity and is therefore incapable of earning his or her own living, provided the Admiralty considers that the pecuniary circumstances of the child and family are such as to justify the award.

(c) Children's pensions will be paid to the widow or mother of the child, or other person responsible for the child's maintenance, or to the child direct, as may be decided by the Admiralty.

(d) Pensions of children of Officers and of Regimental Sergeant Majors, Royal Marines, may be issued annually in advance, with effect from 1st April in each year.

"20. Commutation of Retired Pay"

The widow and children of an officer who commuted a portion of his retired pay will not on that account be deprived of entitlement to pension under this Schedule, but the widow of an officer whose marriage took place after commutation, a step-child eligible by virtue of a marriage after commutation, or child adopted after commutation, will be granted only such portion of any pension which would otherwise be awarded under this Schedule as corresponds with the portion of retired pay not commuted."

Her Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

W. G. Agnew.
