PERFORMING RIGHT TRIBUNAL

Somerles House,
Regent's Park, London N.W.1.

COPYRIGHT ACT, 1956

Ref. No. PRT.9/60

Notice is hereby given pursuant to Rule 5 of the Performing Right Tribunal Rules, 1957 (as amended by the Performing Right Tribunal (Amendment) Rules, 1959), of a reference to the Tribunal under section 25 of the Copyright Act, 1956, by A.I.C. Ltd., the Proprietors of the Association of Independent Cinemas of Regency House, Warwick Street, London W.1 (hereinafter called "the referor").

A copy of the reference has been served on the Performing Right Society Ltd. of Copyright House, 29-33 Berners Street, London W.1 (hereinafter called "the licensing body").

The reference concerns a dispute with regard to a scheme operated by the licensing body which grants licences for the performance of musical works as an accompaniment to cinematograph entertainment for overture, intermission and play-out purposes, and for concerts. This scheme allows a discount on fees payable to the licensing body and provides for a larger discount to organisations having more than five hundred members.

The referor is an organisation of owners of about four hundred independent cinemas in the United Kingdom and alleges that, as there is only one other similar association, namely, the Cinematograph Exhibitors Association, the scheme in fact openly differentiates between the two associations and severely prejudices the referor.

Any organisation or person wishing to be made a party to the proceedings must apply to the undersigned by the 21st of October 1960.

W. E. C. Richards, Acting Secretary.
