The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to appoint Brigadier Walter Morley Sale, C.V.O., O.B.E., to be an Extra Equerry to Her Majesty.

The appointments to date from the 5th April 1961.

Buckingham Palace.
7th April 1961.

The PRINCE PHILIP, DUKE OF EDINBURGH, has been pleased to appoint Lieutenant George Francis Richmond-Brown, Welsh Guards, to be an Extra Equerry to His Royal Highness in the room of Captain Thomas Henry Luckock, Welsh Guards, resigned.

The appointment to date from the 4th April 1961.

Whitehall, London S.W.1.
4th April 1961.

The following Address was presented to The QUEEN on the occasion of Her Majesty's visit to the City of Rochester on 30th March 1961:

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY

May it please Your Majesty,
We, the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Rochester, desire to greet Your Majesty with the expression of our unflinching allegiance to the Throne on this your second public visit, which is also the second visit of His Royal Highness, to our ancient and loyal City.

We are deeply conscious of the great honour conferred upon our City by Your Majesty's graciousness in coming here to-day.

In this year we celebrate the 500th anniversary of the grant of a Charter by Your Majesty's predecessor King Edward IV confirming earlier Charters granted by Your Majesty's predecessors and also ancient privileges even then long held by the City and in particular raising the status of the former Bailiff of the City to the dignity and status of Mayor.

The first recorded Charter granted to the City was by King Richard I in 1190 and the earliest existing Charter in our possession was granted by King Henry III in 1227, and Your Majesty has this day inspected the Charter of 1461 and also the Charter of 1227 and the other Charters which we treasure.

Your Majesty has to-day visited our historic Cathedral which is the mother Church of the second oldest See in the country and has there presented the Royal Maundy, and the City is honoured that Your Majesty should perform this act of service in our City.

In welcoming Your Majesty to this ancient City, which for more than 1,850 years has played a part in the historic events of the Nation, we are reminded of visits of Your Majesty's illustrious predecessors and especially of the visits of Queen Elizabeth I who stayed in the City on several occasions and King Charles II who spent in Rochester the night preceding the restoration of the monarchy and we are happy that we have been granted the privilege of presenting the Loyal Address in the shadow of our Castle which was held successfully on behalf of King Henry III despite many assaults in 1264.

We humbly pray that Your Majesty's reign may be long and glorious and may continue to be blessed with great happiness which Your Majesty's inspiring service to the Nation and to the Commonwealth so justly deserves.

Given under the Common Seal of the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Rochester this Thirtieth day of March One thousand nine hundred and sixty-one.

(L.S.) I. J. Phillips, Mayor.
Philip H. Bartlett, Town Clerk.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:

I thank you most sincerely, Mr. Mayor, for the warmth and loyalty with which the citizens of this old City have welcomed my husband and me to-day, and for the gifts which you, on their behalf, have so generously given me. It has been a real pleasure to us to visit Rochester again and to join with you at a time when you are celebrating the grant, 500 years ago, of the Charter which raised your predecessor to the dignity of Mayor.

I was glad earlier to-day to take part in the Royal Maundy Service in the ancient Cathedral Church with which the City is so closely linked. It is a moving thought that this symbolic ceremony was being conducted on a site on which Divine Service had been celebrated for more than 1,300 years. The present building has been enlarged and enriched by dedicated hands since the first Cathedral was founded in 604 and is an enduring monument to the skill and devotion of those who have worked and worshipped here over the centuries.

Your story goes back to Roman times. You have reminded me of the close association of the City with many of my ancestors; and in the Guildhall this morning my husband and I were very interested to see so many of the Charters which your predecessors, in recognition of their loyalty and devoted service, have received from mine. But Rochester is not content merely to live on its past. The spirit of faithful and energetic service is, I know, very much alive to-day, not least in the important contribution which the City and its inhabitants make to the industrial life of our nation. I wish them all happiness and prosperity in the years that lie ahead.

PRIVY COUNCIL OFFICE

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of March 1961.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 20th day of March 1961 (N.P. 828/61) in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by section 3, of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, and other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Royal Marine Forces to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Order in Council dated 12th August 1907, regulations were made for retired Officers of Your Majesty's Navy to receive increases of retired pay after service in certain salaried appointments after retirement from the Active List:

"And whereas by various Orders in Council the regulations have been amended from time to time:

"And whereas we are of opinion that provision should be made for the widows and children of these Officers on the same conditions as are applicable to widows and children of deceased Officers serving on Inspection, Research, Design and Experimental Ordnance duties under Order in Council dated 23rd July 1931:

"And whereas we are of opinion that Officers in these posts may be retained, at Admiralty discretion, on pensionable conditions up to 65 years of age:

"We beg humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the regulations set forth in the annexed Schedule.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified Their concurrence in these proposals.

" SCHEDULE

"Naval and Marine Officers employed in certain salaried appointments after retirement from the Active List.

"The widows and children of deceased Officers who have served in any of the appointments to which the rules laid down in Order in Council dated 12th August 1907, as amended by subsequent Orders in Council, apply, shall be eligible at the discretion of the Admiralty for the award of pensions or other grants under the regulations from time to time in force for Officers of the Royal Navy and Royal Marines except that for the purpose of determining eligibility of any applicant for a pension or other grant, service on the Retired List in an appointment to which these rules apply shall be regarded as equivalent to service on the Active List.

"In assessing a widow's pension account may be taken of any higher rank attained by the Officer while on the Retired List if thereby the widow would receive a higher rate of pension than would otherwise be the case.

"Officers holding an appointment to which these rules apply may be retained on pensionable terms, at Admiralty discretion, up to age 65."

Her Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

W. G. Agnew.
