The first part of the report deals with the general situation of the country, and the progress of the various branches of industry and commerce. It is found that the country is generally prosperous, and that the various branches of industry and commerce are all making rapid progress. The agriculture is particularly flourishing, and the various manufactures are all increasing in quantity and quality. The commerce is also very active, and the various ports are all busy with shipping. The population is also increasing rapidly, and the various towns and cities are all becoming more and more populous.
