Road Improvement—B.3006, Selborne Road, Chawton

The Hampshire County Council as highway authority for Selborne Road (B.3006) at Chawton, hereby give notice that they propose to enter into an agreement under section 14 of the Highways (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1961 with the owner of land adjoining and to the north of the said road between Skaife Farm and Lavant Stream in the Parish of Chawton.

The land is required for the improvement of the road and the agreement will provide for the exchange of this land for land immediately to the east between Skaife Farm and the road which at this point has recently been realigned. Any person who objects to the proposed agreement may before the expiration of two months from the date of this notice appeal to a Magistrates' Court (by communicating with the Clerk to the Justices at 2 Turk Street, Alton), against the proposed agreement, and the agreement cannot be entered into until the expiration of that period or until the determination or abandonment of any such appeal.

The provisions of subsection (2) of section 300 or of Part II of the Twelfth Schedule to the Highways Act, 1959 (which safeguards the rights of the Postmaster General and statutory undertakers as respects lines and apparatus in the length of road to be stopped up and regulates their alteration or removal) will apply as in the case of a highway stopped up in pursuance of such an Order as is mentioned in those provisions.
