PREMIUM SAVINGS BONDS

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury give notice, in accordance with paragraph 14 (c) of the Prospectus for Premium Savings Bonds (Series B) dated 1st August 1960, that on and from 1st September 1962, the provisions of paragraph 6 of that Prospectus relating to the eligibility of a Bond for inclusion in a draw after the death of the registered holder will be varied and will have effect as if the following paragraph were substituted for paragraph 6 of that Prospectus:

- A Bond will be eligible for inclusion in the first draw held after the expiration of three months beginning on the first day of the month following the month in which it is purchased, provided that it has not been repaid before the expiration of those three months. After a Bond has qualified for its first draw it will be included in each succeeding monthly draw, unless it has been repaid before the first day of the month in which the draw is held or (subject to the provisions of paragraph 14 below) the registered holder has died before the first day of a period of twelve consecutive months preceding the month in which the draw is held or before 1st July 1962, whichever is the later.

This variation in the provisions of the Prospectus for Premium Savings Bonds (Series B) will apply to all Premium Savings Bonds outstanding on 1st September 1962, since Bonds of Series A were made subject to that prospectus under the authority of section 77 of the Finance Act, 1960.

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that They have made an Order under sections 2 and 3 of the Public Offices Fees Act, 1879, viz.:

The Companies Registration Office,
England (Fees) Order.

This Order provides that in England fees payable to the Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies (except those in respect of winding-up proceedings) shall be collected in money or by means of stamps. It also directs the kind of stamps to be used. The Order revokes for England S.R. and O. 1901/71 which directed the collection of these fees in stamps only.

The Order comes into operation on 29th May 1962, and has been published as Statutory Instruments, 1962, No. 1093.

Copies may be purchased (price 3d. net) direct from Her Majesty's Stationery Office at the addresses shown on the last page of this Gazette or from any bookseller.
