Whereas there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 21st day of December 1962 (N.P.4708/62) in the words following, viz.:

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pensions or allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Forces to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein, or to the widow or relation of a deceased Officer, Seaman or Marine, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we deem it expedient to provide for the increase of certain of these pensions and allowances to correspond, as nearly as may be, with the benefits provided, in the case of civil pensions, by the Pensions (Increase) Act 1962; and to make certain consequential adjustments in the minimum rates of pensions that may be awarded in future to the widows and children of deceased Officers, Petty Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Men:

"We beg humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the provisions set out in the Schedules annexed hereto with effect from 1st January 1963.

- (k) Retired Officers' naval pensions and good service pensions.
- (l) Any award increased or increasable under Orders in Council of 13th August 1920, or 8th December 1924.

"2. An award to which this Schedule relates may be increased provided either that:

- (a) the pensioner has attained the age of 60 years or, where the pension is a widow's pension, 40 years; or
- (b) the pensioner, if receiving a pension as a child of a deceased officer, rating or other rank, has not attained the age of 16 years or, having attained that age, is receiving full time instruction in an educational establishment or is undergoing training for a trade, profession or vocation in circumstances that require him to devote the whole of his time to that training for a period of not less than two years; or
- (c) the pensioner was invalidated from the naval service; or
- (d) the pensioner is a woman with at least one dependant as defined in Clause 7 following; or
- (e) the pensioner is permanently incapacitated by physical or mental infirmity from engaging in regular full-time employment.

"3. Subject to the provisions of Clause 4, the increase to comprise:

- (a) the appropriate percentage, as set out in Clause 5, of the retired pay or pension being paid to the pensioner at the time when the increase becomes payable, including any pension increase awarded or admissible under former Pensions Increase Orders in Council; and
- (b) the additional increase as set out in Clause 6 to all pensioners who receive the percentage increase in sub-Clause 3 (a) and who either have already reached or subsequently attain the age of 70; provided that, in the latter case, the additional increase is to take effect and become payable only when the pensioner attains the age of 70.

"4. (a) In implementing the provisions of sub-Clause 3 (a), and in applying the provision of sub-Clause 6 (b) of this Schedule to sub-Clause 3 (b), a fraction of a pound in an annual rate of pension will be treated as a whole pound and a fraction of sixpence in a weekly rate of pension will be treated as a whole sixpence, for the purpose of the calculation only. The increase to be added to the actual pension in payment.

(b) Where commutation is effected on or after 1st January 1963, the amount commuted to be included as if it were still part of the pension, in assessing the increase permissible.

"5. The amounts of the percentage increases under sub-Clause 3 (a) to be as follows:

(a) Twelve per cent. for—

- (i) the service retired pay or pension of officers of the Women's Royal Naval Service, Queen Alexandra's Royal Naval Nursing Service and Nursing Service Reserve and the Naval Nursing Auxiliary Section, and for men's and women's service pensions, and for family pensions, assessed in accordance with regulations which were effective before 1st April 1959;
- (ii) the service retired pay or pension of officers (other than permanent and temporary officers on the Special Duties List in receipt of awards under paragraphs (A), (B) or (C) of Schedule III of Order in Council (No. 64*/N.P.) of 24th March 1961, and women officers) assessed in accordance with regulations which were effective before 1st April 1960;
- (iii) the family pensions of widows and children of naval ratings and Royal Marine other ranks awarded at minimum rates effective from 1st April 1959.

(b) Six per cent. for—

- (i) the service retired pay or pension of permanent and temporary officers on the Special Duties List, if increased in accordance with the regulations in paragraphs (A), (B) or (C), and the service retired pay of the women officers designated in sub-Clause 1 (b) if awarded under the regulations in paragraph (D), of Schedule III of Order in Council (No. 64*/N.P.) of 24th March 1961. Officers on the Special Duties List to whom this sub-Clause relates may however be granted instead their service retired pay award, less the increase payable under Order in Council of 24th March 1961, with the appropriate pensions increase thereon;
- (ii) men's and women's service pensions and the pensions named in sub-Clauses 1 (i) and (j) if assessed in accordance with regulations introduced with effect from 1st April 1959, and in force before 1st April 1962.
- (c) four per cent. for officers' service retired pay in the categories named in sub-Clauses 1 (a) and (b) assessed in accordance with regulations introduced with effect from 1st April 1960, and in force before 1st April 1962, whether or not the awards were made before the latter date.
- (d) in the case of family pensions assessed under regulations introduced with effect from 1st April 1959, the same percentage as would have been awarded to the officer, rating or other rank from whose service the family pension derives, had he been alive on 1st January 1963, and the relevant conditions in Clause 2 of this Schedule were satisfied; provided, however, that where it is more favourable a family pension may be increased instead by an amount equal to, the amount by which the pension falls short of the minimum rate of family pension effective from 1st January 1963, which may be awarded in respect of an officer, rating or other rank of the same rank or rate. No increase to be awarded under this Schedule in respect of death on or after 1st January 1963.

"6. (a) Subject to sub-Clause 6 (b) hereunder, the additional increase under sub-Clause 3 (b) to be as follows:

- (i) for pensions defined in sub-Clause 5 (a): £20 a year or, in the case of pensions assessed at weekly rates, 7s. 8d. a week.

- (ii) for pensions defined in sub-Clause 5 (b): £10 a year or, in the case of pensions assessed at weekly rates, 3s. 10d. a week.
- (iii) for pensions defined in sub-Clause 5 (c): £7 a year or, in the case of pensions assessed at weekly rates, 2s. 8d. a week.
- (iv) for pensions defined in sub-Clause 5 (d): the increase which would have been awarded to the officer, rating or other rank from whose service the pension derives, had he been alive on 1st January 1963, and of the same age as the pensioner; provided that, where an increase is granted to give a pension equivalent to a pension increased under sub-Clause 5 (a), the additional increase shall be as for a pension defined under sub-Clause 6 (a) (i); and provided that, where it is more favourable to the pensioner, additional increase may be granted instead of an amount equal to the amount by which the pension falls short of the minimum rate of family pension applicable to pensioners aged 70 years or more, effective from 1st January 1963, which may be awarded in respect of an officer, rating or other rank of the same rank or rate.

(b) No additional increase under this Clause to exceed one quarter of the pension payable to the pensioner before receiving any increase payable under Clause 3.

"7. The expression 'dependant' for the purpose of sub-Clause 2 (d) to mean a person wholly or mainly supported by the pensioner and who either

- (a) has not attained the age of 16 years or who, having attained that age, is receiving full time instruction at an educational establishment or undergoing training for a trade, profession or vocation in such circumstances that he is required to devote the whole of his time to that training for a period of not less than two years; or

- (b) immediately before the date of effect of this Order in Council qualified the pensioner under former Pensions Increase Orders in Council for an increase of pension which would otherwise have been inadmissible.

"8. The grant of an increase of pension under this Order not to affect eligibility for increases of pension under former Pensions Increase Orders in Council. Any increase granted under this Order to be disregarded in assessing the increase admissible under former Pensions Increase Orders in Council, except that the Orders of 28th September 1944 (No. 57/P.M.), 24th January 1945 (S.R. & O. 1945 No. 80), 20th March 1946 (No. 95/P.M.), 2nd April 1947 (No. 109/P.M.), 4th September 1952 (No. 73/P.M.), 3rd June 1954 (No. 19/N.P.) and 9th October 1956 (No. 39/N.P.) are to be construed as having been amended with effect from 1st January 1963, to include the provisions of sub-Clause 2 (b) of this Schedule.

"9. Where a pensioner receives more than one pension to which this Schedule applies, the aggregate increase under sub-Clause 3 (b) on all such pensions to be restricted to the increase which would have been given on a single pension equal to their total and beginning at the time when the earliest of them began. The increase on each individual pension to be calculated by dividing the aggregate increase between the pensions in proportion to the increases which would have been given apart from this restriction.

"10. For the purpose of applying Clause 9, a pension of either of the following categories to be taken into account as if it were a pension to which this Schedule applies:

- (a) a pension arising from service in the Army, the Royal Air Force or the armed forces of India or Burma and increasable under provisions corresponding to those of this Schedule;
- (b) a pension increasable under the Pensions (Increase) Act 1962.

" SCHEDULE II

" Special provisions

"The retired pay and additional retired pay granted to officers in respect of service in certain salaried appointments for which provision is made in Orders in Council dated 13th December 1921 (No. 207*/C.E.), 26th May 1925 (No. 114 A/C.E.), and 23rd July 1931 (No. 96/C.E.), and subsequent amending Orders in Council may be increased as follows:—

- (a) the retired pay earned by service on the active list to be increased by the amount of the pensions increases appropriate at the date of the officer's final retirement: the additional retired pay earned by service in the salaried appointment after being placed on the retired list shall then be added to the original retired pay, increased as above, and the whole amount treated as a civil pension dating from final retirement; but

- (b) where the total under (a) above is wholly or partially excluded from further increase by reason of the date of final retirement or the amount of retiring salary, the minimum increase to be the amount of increase which could be given on the rate of retired pay awarded for service on the active list.

"2. The pensions specified at sub-Clause 1 (d) (e) (f) (g) (m) and (n) of Schedule I may be increased only by the extent to which a corresponding award under the Superannuation Acts would have been increasable under the Pensions (Increase) Act 1962.

" SCHEDULE III
