ROYAL WARRANT

Whereas We deem it expedient to provide for the increase of certain pensions granted in respect of service in the Armed Forces of India and of Burma or in respect of service with such Forces to correspond as nearly as may be with the benefits provided in the case of civil pensions by the Pensions (Increase) Act, 1962;

Our Will and Pleasure is that the provisions which are set out in the Schedule attached to this Our Warrant for the increase of such pensions shall have effect from 1st January 1963.

Given at Our Court of St. James this 25th day of February 1963, in the 12th year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,
R. A. Butler.

SCHEDULE

1. In this Warrant, unless the context otherwise requires.

(a) "pension" means a pension of the classes described in paragraph 2 of this Schedule, payable in respect of service specified in paragraph 3 of this Schedule, not being a pension payable to a person resident in India, Pakistan, Burma or Aden;

(b) "service pension" and "service element of pension" include Indian Element of pension.

2. The following are the classes of pension referred to in paragraph 1 of this Schedule.

(1) Service pensions and the service portion of disability pensions under Indian or Burma Regulations or under the Third Schedule to the Warrant dated 21st May, 1955, of

(a) European officers of the Armed Forces of the former British India who held Commissions in Our Land Forces and all officers of the Indian Medical Service;

(b) officers and warrant officers of the India Unattached List;

(c) European officers and warrant officers of the Royal Indian Navy or Royal Indian Naval Volunteer Reserve;

(d) European officers and warrant officers who formed part of the Armed Forces of Burma before 4th January, 1948;

(e) members of the Queen Alexandra's Military Nursing Service for India;

(f) officers and warrant officers of the Indian Medical Department (British Cadre);

(g) Indian officers of the Armed Forces of the former British India and members of the Indian Military Nursing Service who were, on 1st April,

1955, permanently resident in the United Kingdom.

(2) Service pensions payable under the authority of the Pensions (India, Pakistan and Burma) Act, 1955, to officers of the Royal Engineers, the Royal Artillery, the Royal Corps of Signals, the Continuous Indian Service Cadre of the Royal Army Veterinary Corps and the Army Educational Corps.

(3) Service family pensions at ordinary rates, in respect of officers and warrant officers within any description in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) or (f) of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph.

(4) Pensions in respect of distinguished or meritorious service.

3. The service referred to in paragraph 1 of this Schedule is service, whether by the recipient of the pension or by some other person:—

(a) which, except in the case of service in the Armed Forces of Burma, ended before 15th August, 1947, or the termination of which was attributable to the passing of the Indian Independence Act, 1947, or

(b) which, in the case of service in the Armed Forces of Burma, ended before 4th January, 1948, or the termination of which was attributable to the passing of the Burma Independence Act, 1947, or

(c) which was rendered by a person who in the opinion of our Secretary of State was domiciled outside Asia at the date when the service began, such date being, except in the case of service in the Armed Forces of Burma, a date before 15th August, 1947, and, in the case of service in the Armed Forces of Burma, a date before 4th January, 1948.

4. A pension may be increased provided either

(a) the pensioner has attained the age of sixty years, or where the pension is a widow's pension, forty years, or

(b) the pensioner, if receiving a pension as the child of a deceased officer or warrant officer, has not attained the age of sixteen years, or having attained that age, is receiving full time instruction in an educational establishment, or is undergoing training for a trade, profession or vocation in such circumstances that he is required to devote the whole of his time to that training for a period of not less than two years or

(c) the pensioner on being invalided from the service was awarded a service pension for the first, or only time, or

(d) the pensioner is a woman with at least one dependant (as defined in paragraph 8 below), or

(e) the pensioner is permanently incapacitated by physical or mental infirmity from engaging in any regular full time employment.

5. The amount of the increase shall be:—

(a) Twelve per cent. of the pension payable to the pensioner at the time when the increase becomes payable, including any pension increase awarded or admissible under the Warrants of 4th August 1956, and 14th September 1959, as amended by paragraph 9 of this Schedule, and also including any part of the pension which has been commuted after 31st December, 1962. For the purpose of the calculation, any fraction of a pound of the annual pension shall be treated as a whole pound.

(b) £20 per year or one quarter of the pension payable as defined in (a) above, whichever is less to all pensioners who receive the percentage increase in (a) above and who have either already reached their 70th birthday or who subsequently attain the age of 70 years (provided that in the latter case the additional increase is made only from the date of the pensioner's 70th birthday).

6.—(1) Where a pensioner is in receipt of more than one pension which:

(a) is increasable under the provisions of this or any other Pensions Increase Warrant, or

(b) is increasable under the provisions of the Pensions (Increase) Act, 1962, or

(c) is a pension arising from service in the Royal Navy or the Royal Air Force, which is increasable under provisions corresponding to those of this warrant, the aggregate increase under paragraph 5 (b) of all such pensions shall be limited to the increase which would have been given on a single pension beginning at the time when the earliest of them began and equal to their total.

(2) The increases on each individual pension shall be calculated by dividing the aggregate increase between the pensions in proportion to the increases which could have been given apart from this restriction.

7. Any general condition attaching to the grant or continuance of a pension shall also apply to the grant or continuance of any increase to that pension.

8. The expression "dependant" for the purpose of paragraph 4 shall mean a person wholly or mainly supported by the pensioner who either:

(a) has not attained the age of sixteen years, or who is in receipt of full time instruction at an educational establishment, or undergoing training for any trade, profession, or vocation, in such circumstances that he is required to devote the whole of his time to that training for a period of not less than two years, or

(b) immediately before the date of effect of this present Warrant, qualified the pensioner, under former Warrants, for an increase of pension which would otherwise have been inadmissible.

9. In paragraph 5 of the First Schedule to the Royal Warrant of 4th August 1956, after the words "or has not attained the age of sixteen years" shall be inserted the words "unless having attained that age he is receiving full time instruction in an educational establishment or is undergoing training for a trade, profession or vocation in such circumstances that he is required to devote the whole of his time to that training for a period of not less than two years" and in paragraph 5 of the Schedule to the Royal Warrant of 14th September 1959, the words "similarly calculated" shall be omitted and after the words "ten per cent." shall be added the words "and the amount shall be calculated in accordance with the preceding subparagraph of this paragraph except that the reference to the Warrant of 4th August, 1956 shall be construed as a reference to that Warrant as amended."

10. The grant of an increase of pension under this Warrant except an increase admissible by virtue of the amendment by this Warrant of the Warrants of the 4th August, 1956 or of 14th September, 1959 shall not affect entitlement to increases under those warrants and any increase granted under this Warrant, except an increase as aforesaid shall be disregarded in assessing the increase admissible under those Warrants.
