

become faint. He was unable to hold both men and one fell to his death. Keenan retained his hold on the other and, realising the nature of the danger, climbed into a bo'sun's chair and secured the unconscious man to the chimney with a rope. Keenan then himself became unconscious. He and the workman were eventually rescued by the Works Rescue Team.

Queen's Commendation for Brave Conduct :

Michael Scott BELL, Constable, Cheshire Constabulary. (Macclesfield).

Stanley David SMITH, Constable, Cheshire Constabulary. (Macclesfield).

For services when arresting two armed and dangerous criminals.

Ivor Douglas BROWN, Fireman, Bristol Fire Brigade.

For services when a man was in danger of being swept over a weir.

GAWAN ak Jangga, District Councillor, Limbang.
For services during the Brunei Operations in December 1962.

Thomas Durrance KEENAN (deceased), Painter, Tilbury, Essex.

For services when a workman was overcome by fumes at the top of a factory chimney.

TSEU EN FOOK, Tamparuli, Tuaran District, North Borneo.

For services when a native ran amok armed with a parang.

Queen's Commendation for Valuable Service in the Air :

Hugh Charles Henry MEREWETHER, Deputy Chief Test Pilot, Hawker Aircraft Ltd. (Chilworth).

For landing an experimental aircraft when the engine suffered a complete failure during a test flight at 3,000 feet.

LONDON

Printed and published by HER MAJESTY'S STATIONERY OFFICE: 1963

Price Sixpence net