MINES AND QUARRIES ACT, 1954

Draft Coal and Other Mines (Managers and Officials) (Variation) Regulations, 1963

The Minister of Power, in accordance with the provisions of section 142 of, and Part I of the Second Schedule to, the Mines and Quarries Act, 1954, hereby gives notice that he proposes to make General Regulations under sections 141 and 143 of the Act, entitled the Coal and Other Mines (Managers and Officials) (Variation) Regulations, 1963.

These Regulations will apply to mines of coal, stratified ironstone, shale and fireclay and will vary the provisions of the Coal and Other Mines (Managers and Officials) Regulations, 1956, as amended by the Coal and Other Mines (Managers and Officials) (Variation) Regulations, 1961, and the Coal and Other Mines (Managers and Officials) (Variation) Regulations, 1962, in the following respects:

- (1) They enable managers to appoint competent persons, who must be qualified to be deputies, to carry out the pre-shift inspections which would otherwise have to be carried out by the deputy to whom a district is assigned for a shift or by the deputy for the preceding shift. They impose the same requirements with respect to the carriage of lamps on appointed persons as are already imposed on deputies, and authorise such a person to be accompanied by a competent workman as an assistant when making such an inspection.
- (2) They give such appointed persons the same powers as deputies to control the entry of workmen into districts.
- (3) They impose the same duty on such appointed persons as on deputies to fence off and mark dangerous places and require an appointed person who has taken such action to inform the deputy to whom the district is assigned.
- (4) They provide that where the deputy in charge of a district commits the charge of workmen remaining behind in a district after he has left it, that charge shall if practicable be committed to a person appointed to make pre-shift inspections.
- (5) They permit fixed electric lights to be left on at the end of a shift if an appointed person is in the district, or due to arrive in it within thirty minutes of the departure of the last workman in the preceding shift.
- (6) They require an appointed person to confer with the oncoming deputy when he has completed his pre-shift inspection.
- (7) They impose on persons appointed to make pre-shift inspections the duty of reporting his inspection in the book provided for the purpose.

Copies of the draft Regulations may be purchased (price 5d. from Her Majesty's Stationery Office) at any of the addresses shown on the last page of this Gazette.

Any objection to the draft Regulations by, or on behalf of, any person affected thereby must be sent to the Minister of Power, Thames House South, Millbank, London S.W.1, before 18th September 1963. Each such objection must be made in writing and must state:
