Madrid, March 8. N. S.

THE Duke of Ossuna arrived here lately from Andalusia, to desire of the Duke of Anjou a Reinforcement of Troops for the better Security of that Province; whereupon Orders have been given, That some new Levies, which are making at Ossuna and Ubeda, should be sent thither. The Duke of Berwick having assembled his Troops near Albacete, has put them into Quarters between that Town and Murcia. The Confederates have likewise drawn their Army together in the Neighbourhood of Xativa, and are ready to take the Field.

Milan, March 15. Every thing being now settled for evacuating our Castle, the Garison is to march out the 20th by one of the Gates, and the Imperialists are to enter the Place at the same time by another. The French Troops there, together with those which are in Garison at Valenza and Final, are to march together to Suza; those at Mantua and Mirandola are to march to the French Frontiers by another Route; and the French Troops at Cremona and Sabionetta, are to take a third Road: So that marching thus by different Ways, they may be subsisted with greater Ease and Conveniency, which is to be done at the Expence of the Inhabitants of this Duchy. The Spanish and Italian Troops in those Garisons are to be at liberty either to enter into the Pay of the Allies, to return to their respective Dwellings, or to continue in the Service of the Duke of Anjou. Those that make Choice of the latter are to retire to Naples. The Duke of Savoy has taken Possession of the Town of Alexandria and its Territory; and will do the like of Valenza and Final, as soon as those Places are evacuated.

Lemberg, March 3. The Great Council of the Nobility of Poland continues to sit in this Place; and several of the Chief Officers of the Crown Army are lately arrived here, who have assured that Assembly of their Resolution, and that of the Troops under their Command, to adhere steadfastly to their Interest; and to encourage them, Orders have been issued to the Crown Treasurer to pay a considerable Sum of Money to those Troops, in part of the Arrears that are due to them. The Czar of Muscovy is preparing to march shortly from Zolkiow towards the Polish Prussia. They write from Lithuania, That Prince Wiestnowski, who commands the Forces of that Duchy, has lately gained some Advantage over a Detachment of Swedish Troops. The Imperial Troops commanded by General Rabutin continue in Quarters of Retirement upon the Frontiers of Stiria; where they are making some Lines to secure that Province from the Excursions of the Malecontents. The latter continue before Leopoldstad; and to divert General Rabutin from attempting the Relief of that Place, endeavoured to make an Incursion into Moravia, but the Passes were well guarded, that they were obliged to retire with Loss; and three Imperial Regiments of Horse, with about 2000 Rascians, are sent to succour Leopoldstad. Count Caroli, with a Body of Malecontents, has possessed himself of the Fort of Czonad, after a Siege of six Days; during which time the Garison, which consisted but of 100 Rascians, made a very brave Defence: He had granted them very honourable Terms; but, contrary thereto, persuaded as many as he could to enter into the Service of the Malecontents, and disbanded and plundered the rest; after which he razed the Fort. Letters from Transylvania confirm the Accounts we have had of a considerable Victory gained, though with a very unequal Force, by Baron Tige, over the Malecontents in that Principality; and add, That he afterwards marched to Hermanstad, where he arrived the 13th inst.
