MINES AND QUARRIES ACT, 1954

Draft Mines (Medical Examinations) Regulations, 1964

The Minister of Power in accordance with the provisions of section 142 of, and Part I of the Second Schedule to, the Mines and Quarries Act, 1954, hereby gives notice that he proposes to make General Regulations under sections 92, 141 and 143 of the Act, entitled the Mines (Medical Examinations) Regulations, 1964.

The medical examination of young persons at coal and miscellaneous mines, at present, is governed, respectively, by the Coal Mines (Medical Examinations) Regulations, 1956, and regulation 70 of the Miscellaneous Mines (General) Regulations, 1956. There are no regulations to provide for the medical examination of young persons at mines of stratified ironstone, shale or fireclay. The new Regulations, which will come into operation on 1st October 1964, will apply to all mines and will revoke and replace the Regulations now in force for coal and miscellaneous mines. The general object of the draft Regulations is to provide that young persons under 18 years of age must be medically examined on first taking up employment at a mine and re-examined at yearly intervals until they are 18.

Copies of the draft Regulations may be purchased (price 5d. net) from Her Majesty's Stationery Office at any of the addresses shown on the last page of this Gazette.

Any objection to the draft regulations by, or on behalf of, any person affected thereby must be sent to the Minister of Power, Thames House South, Millbank, London S.W.1, before 29th January 1964. Each such objection must be in writing and must state:
