The Hydrocarbon Oils Duties (Drawback) (No. 1) Order, 1964.

This Order provides for the allowance of drawback of customs or excise duty paid in respect of hydrocarbon oil used in the manufacture or preparation of tropical cork headgear. It replaces the drawback allowed in respect of tropical helmets by an allowance on a wider range of headgear, but at a lower rate. It also reduces the rate used for determining the quantity of hydrocarbon oil in respect of which drawback is allowed for a specified type of water-repellent agent for textiles.

The Order comes into operation on the 4th March 1964, and has been published as Statutory Instruments 1964, No. 251.

Copies may be purchased (price 3d. net) direct from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, at the addresses shown on the last page of this Gazette. or from any bookseller.

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that They have made an Order under section 9 and 13 of, and Schedule 5 to, the Import Duties Act, 1958, viz.:

The Import Duty Drawbacks (No. 2) Order, 1964.

This Order provides for the allowance of drawback of import duty on—

- (i) certain imported bones used in the manufacture of specified animal black for export;
- (ii) specified imported plywood used in the manufacture of certain plywood packing cases for export; and
- (iii) imported natural straw hoods used in the manufacture of panama hats for export.

This Order also provides for—

- (i) the alteration of the rates of drawback of import duty on imported linseed and linseed oil used in the manufacture of specified exported goods including printers' inks; and

- (ii) an increase in the rate of drawback of import duty on imported cadmium metal used in the manufacture of exported pigment.

The Order comes into operation on the 4th March 1964, and has been published as Statutory Instruments 1964, No. 252.
