WATER RESOURCES ACT 1963

Draft of the Humber (Seaward Boundaries of River Authority Areas) Order 1964

1. Notice is hereby given that the Minister of Housing and Local Government has prepared in draft an Order which he proposes to make under paragraph 5 of Schedule 2 to the Water Resources Act 1963.

2. The purpose of Schedule 2 is to secure that the seaward boundaries of river authority areas are clearly defined for the purposes of the new, water resources, functions of those river authorities.

It provides generally that the seaward boundary is to be low-water mark of ordinary spring tides on the coast of a river authority area and that in the case of a river, stream or other water-course the boundary is to be a line across the mouth from low-water mark at the seaward extremity of one bank to low-water mark at the seaward extremity of the other bank, thus including in the area waters within that line. These provisions, however, are subject to a power given to the Minister of Housing and Local Government by order to include in, or exclude from, a river authority area, designated tidal waters in so far as they are below low-water mark.

3. The general effect of the Order to which this notice relates is to exclude some of the tidal waters of the rivers Ouse and Trent and the whole of the river Humber from the areas of all river authorities and to direct that certain tidal waters of the river Ouse lying between the areas of the Yorkshire Ouse and Hull and the Trent river authorities shall be included in the area of the Yorkshire Ouse and Hull river authority.

4. Copies of the draft Order and of the maps to which it refers may be inspected by any person free of charge at all reasonable hours during the period of twenty-eight days from 14th May 1964 at the following places:

7. The offices of the Lincolnshire (Lindsey) County Council, County Offices, Lincoln.
8. The offices of the Town Clerk, Guildhall, Kingston upon Hull.
9. The offices of the Town Clerk, Municipal Offices, Town Hall Square, Grimsby.

Any such objection should be addressed to The Secretary, Ministry of Housing and Local Government, Whitehall, London S.W.1, quoting reference No. WS/387/4/2. Any person who duly objects will be given an opportunity of being heard on his objection, and thereafter it will be open to the Minister to make the Order in the form of the present draft or with alterations as he may think fit.

PERFORMING RIGHT TRIBUNAL

THE REFERENCE OF THE ASSOCIATION OF MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS AND OF OTHER ASSOCIATIONS OF LOCAL AUTHORITIES.

Short Particulars of Decision

The Performing Right Tribunal publish the following short particulars of the decision in a dispute with the Performing Right Society ("the P.R.S.", for short) referred to them by a number of associations, together representing most of the local authorities in the United Kingdom, to which were joined as interested parties The Urban District Councils Association, The Music Users' Council and The Association of Health and Pleasure Resorts.

In December 1962, the P.R.S. brought into force the latest revised version of their "Tariff M", which was designed to cover musical performances at all places of entertainment, indoors or out of doors, belonging to or controlled by a local authority. Certain exceptions were expressly made in which the P.R.S. reserved to itself the right of direct recourse to the promoters of the relative performances.

The major changes involved in the revision, to which objection was made, were (1) the abolition of a sliding scale of charges, whereby local authorities which showed a large turnover in expenditure and receipts in respect of musical entertainment enjoyed the benefit of paying at an early stage of their relative annual activity charges at a substantially lower rate than those payable by authorities showing a small turnover; and (2) the introduction of a system of accountancy whereby turnover was calculated, not on an authority's aggregated expenditure and receipts, but severally on those in respect of each of its places of entertainment.

If the first of these objections failed, and charges were universally to be made at a flat rate, the second objection would not arise.

The Tribunal decided that whereas it was expedient in the interests of promoting the provision of musical entertainment, that a sliding scale (although within narrower limits than those heretofore in force) should be restored as regards charges calculated with reference to an authority's gross expenditure on musical entertainment, there was no such case to be upheld against charging at a flat rate calculated in respect of gross receipts from the letting of premises to other promoters of such entertainment.

The basic rates of 2 per cent. of gross expenditure (although now subject to a scale descending in four stages as such expenditure increased by successive amounts of £3,000, to a minimum of 1 per cent.) and 5 per cent. on gross receipts (although now at a flat rate throughout) were fixed with reference to the basic rates freely agreed between substantially the same parties when the tariff was previously revised in 1935. The variations took account of changes in circumstances since that date.

As to the second objection, which remained in view of the restoration, in respect of expenditure, of the sliding scale, the Tribunal decided that charges should be calculated as in the past on the licensee's aggregated turnover.

On four subsidiary issues, it was determined:

- (a) that where a local authority let premises free or for a nominal consideration for the purposes of a musical entertainment, the P.R.S. was to be given 7 days advance notice to enable it to have recourse to the relative promoter, subject to the payment of £1 by way of liquidated damages in default of due notice being given;
- (b) that in respect only of summer variety entertainments at certain seaside resorts, in which copyright musical items are mixed with non-musical matter, where the so-called "package deal" applies, the allowance to be made for non-music-copyright matter should remain at 25 per cent. as in the revised tariff;
- (c) that it should not be necessary for returns submitted by licensees to the P.R.S. to be independently audited, and that the personal certificate of the appropriate senior municipal officer should suffice; and
- (d) that, subject to a minimum charge, payment should be made as formerly, as to one half on estimated expenditure and receipts at the beginning of each annual period, and as to the adjusted balance (if any), on the making up of the annual account.

The scheme embodied in the tariff was varied by the Tribunal accordingly with effect from the 29th April 1964.

A copy of the Decision may be inspected at the offices of the Tribunal, 24 Kingsway (6th Floor), London W.C.2, during office hours (10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Mondays to Fridays).
