THE Success of Your Majesty's Undertakings, ever since Your happy Accession to the Throne, sufficiently proclaims Your benevolence and the Care of Providence, as You are entire in the Hearts of Your Subjects; who, under Your auspicious Reign, have Reason to esteem themselves the happiest People in the World, enjoying Peace and Plenty at Home; and, by Your Majesty's great Wisdom, the Accomplishment of the Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland in a few Months, which has been for Ages past unsuccessfully attempted.

May Your Majesty be many Years a Witness of the desired Effects of it: And we Your dutiful and loyal Subjects of Great Britain shall endeavour there shall be no other Emulation amongst us, than who shall approve themselves most serviceable and obedient to Your Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Capital Burgeesses and Assistants, of Her Majesty's loyal Corporation of Tiverton: Presented to Her Majesty by Thomas Bere Esq. one of their Representatives in Parliament: Introduced by his Grace the Duke of Somerset.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE Your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, beg Leave to join in the Publick Joy; and having so often render'd Thanks for the wonderful Victories obtained over the Common Enemy by Your Arms Abroad, desire now to congratulate the prosperous Success of Your Majesty's Councils at Home, in uniting England and Scotland into One Kingdom.

The Sovereign Power Your Majesty hath over the Hearts and Affections of Your People (the most Noble of all Victories) now appears Gloriously to the whole World, since nothing else could cause that great Readiness both Nations have shown to be made One, under Your Majesty's most happy Government; a Blessing in our wish'd for in former Reigns.

That this Union may fully answer the great Ends by Your Majesty's Goodness design'd, the Security of our Established Church, and the Protestant Religion, as well as the Strength, Common Welfare and Prosperity of Great Britain, to the Joy of our Friends and Allies, the Envy and Terror of our Foes, is the sincere Prayer of Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects and Servants.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Steward, Jurats, Gentlemen, and other the Inhabitants, of Her Majesty's ancient Corporation of Faversham in the County of Kent: Presented to Her Majesty by Thomas Napleton Esq. their Steward: Introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Rockingham, Lord Lieutenant of the said County.

To Her most Excellent Majesty ANNE, Queen of Great Britain, France and Ireland.

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, with Hearts sincerely thankful to Almighty God, and grateful to Your Majesty for all the great and invaluable Blessings we enjoy under Your Majesty's auspicious Reign, do most humbly beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majesty on the Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland.

It is with the greatest Joy and Satisfaction that we see the Completion of this great Work, so glorious to Your Majesty, and beneficial to all Your People; by which the Strength and Honour of Your Government is increas'd and advanc'd, the present and future Peace of this whole Island settled on a lasting Foundation, the Succession in the Protestant Line more firmly established, and our Religion, Laws and Liberties, secured to our Posterity.

Your Majesty's indulgent Care of the Good and Welfare of all Your Subjects, thro' the whole Course of Your gracious Administration, does evidently shew the generous Motive which first led You to attempt it, as the happy Event does the Wisdom of Your Council and Conduct, which so successfully has overcome all those Difficulties that render'd all former Endeavours to obtain it insufficient.

We most heartily pray for the long Continuance of Your Majesty's happy Reign over us; and that all Your Subjects, with united Affections, may pursue their common Interest, by their constant Endeavours to improve so great a Blessing to the best Advantage, and make all due Returns of Gratitude and Obedience to the best of Princes.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,
THE wonderful Work of uniting these Two Kingdoms into One Nation, which Your Majesty's unparalleled Wisdom has lately brought to Perfection, makes Your dutiful Subjects humbly presume, upon a Happiness Your great Goodness has often vouchsafed us, to approach Your Royal Throne, and offer up, with our Congratulations, the sincerest Thankfulness for the many Blessings Your People every where enjoy, and of which Your Sacred Majesty, by the particular Favour of Divine Providence, is made the remarkable Occasion. May the same Providence (if we are worthy of them) long continue these His Blessings, and the Sacred Person by whom they are convey'd; whereby ours, and after them very late Posterity, may (as we are) be happy Witnesses of so glorious a Reign. In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of the said Corporation to be hereunto affixed: the last Day of May, in the Sixth Year of Your Majesty's most auspicious Reign.

Newcastle upon Tyne Address was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Henry Liddell Bar. and William Carr Esq.; their Representatives in Parliament: Introduced by the Rt. Venice, June 3. N. S. We have receiv'd Advice, That the German Troops were advanc'd to the State of Urbino, in their Way to Loretto, where General Thaun is to open his second Letter of Instructions how to proceed on his March towards Naples. General Wetzel, and other German Officers, are at Rome; where they demand of the Pope to set at Liberty the Four Neapolitan Princes, who have been long confined in the Castle of St. Angelo, and the German Captain who was imprisoned for secretly raising Soldiers to serve in the Reduction of the Kingdom of Naples. The Pope hath taken off the Excommunication of the Viceroy of Naples; and we hear Cardinal Pignatelli is on his Departure for that Kingdom, to take Possession of the Archbishoprick of Naples, in which he hath been oppos'd for some Years, being a declar'd Friend of the House of Austria.

Berlin, June 11. His Majesty diverts himself, during the Heat of the Summer, in removing from one Country-House to another, having Variety of pleasing Seats at a small distance from this City. The Court attended His Majesty this Morning to Oranienberg, whither the Prince and Princess Royal will follow in a few Days. It being the first time of the Princess's visiting that Place, there will be Illuminations and several extraordinary Diversions prepar'd for her Entertainment. The British Ambassador intends to go thither at the same time, by a particular Invitation from His Majesty, who, with the Prince Royal, did that Minister the Honour to sup with him on Wednesday last at his Excellency's House of Retirement near the Town. The King took the Diversion of sailing down the River from Charlottenberg in his Yacht, and was received at his Landing by his Excellency, who attended his Arrival with a Train of Five Coaches, his Excellency's Body-Coach, in which the King rode, being drawn by Eight Horses. The King having written some time since to the Elector of Hanover on the Occasion of his Electoral Highness's interfering with him in the Affair of the County of Mansfeldt, which King Augustus was willing to engage for a Sum of Money, has lately receiv'd for Answer, That the Elector had only accepted the Offer made by King Augustus without any previous Advances on his side. It is said that Montieur Oberg, who is now in Saxony, has concluded this Negotiation for the County of Mansfeldt; and that his Electoral Highness is to lend upon it 600000 Dollars. The Ministers of Hanover having desir'd His Majesty to communicate to them the Instructions he has given to his Deputies design'd for the Visitation of the Chamber at Wetzelar, and having signified his Electoral Highness's Intention of acting in Conformity with his Prussian Majesty for the Reformation of such Abuses as have crept into that Court of Justice, they have accordingly receiv'd from the King's Ministers a Copy of their Instructions. Letters from Lublin of the 23th of May advise, That the Great Council open'd there on the 23d with the usual Solemnities, but had not then enter'd on Business, the Primate having adjourn'd the Session for some Days, to give Time for the Arrival of the Deputies.

Leipsick, June 11. On Thursday last the King of Sweden, accompanied by King Stanislaus, did Major-General Mayerfeldt the Honour to be present at his Marriage with Mademouelle Tornflycht, Sister to the Countess Piper. Major-General Wrangel is lately dead of a Fever, and much lamented by this Court: He was Captain-Lieutenant of the King's
