Windſor, June 21.

THE following Addreſſes from the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens, of the City of Hereford, was preſented to Her Maſteſty by the Hon. James Brydges Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, and Pay- maſter of Her Maſteſty's Forces abroad; introduced by Mr. Se- cretary Harley.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,
We the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens, of the City of Hereford, do moſt humbly beg Your Maſteſty's Acceptance and Congratulation with You, for the many great and heavenly Favours and mercies, which You, through Your Maſteſty, have already received. Your Victories abroad are wonderful; but the Union of Your own Kingdoms as come (as to us) exceeds all. Our private Records ſhew us of old Incurſions and Depredations upon us by the then our Enemies the Welchmen; ſometimes plundering our City, burning our Churches, and murdering our Reſidentaries and Citizens: From all which like Dangers the Union of England and Wales hath ſecured us ever ſince; and we have not been left without the only Remedy we had for our Loſſes. Our publick Hiſtories tell us of the old Invaſions of the Scots upon Eng- land, and their often opening a Door to the French to aſſault us; but the happy Union of England and Scotland (near- ly now perfected, by Your Maſteſty's Care and Wiſdom) hath by that happy Paſſage; and will turn the ſharp Thistles of the Kingdom into the Faces of our French Enemies, who formerly lay the ſame cloſe to our Backs. Now we need neither King's Troop, nor the Pike Wall to defend us: You have aar- ried the Luffre of the Three Flower de Lucez, and rendered a Tour on the Lions ramparts: You have kept the B. G. Lion from being laid; You have kept open and diſplayed the Wings of the Eagle; and You have nursed up her Young. May the good God continue His Bleſſings upon You; which will make us and our Children's Children happy. That Your Maſteſty may be over us and them, ſhall be our ſincere Prayers. All we can manifeſt, by cauſing the Common Seal of our City to be ſet on this 9th Day of June, in the Sixth Year of Your Maſteſty's Reign over us.

The humble Adreſſes of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Bailiffs, Common Council, and other the Burgeſſes, of Her Maſteſty's ancient Corporation of Cambridge: Preſented to Her Maſteſty by John Weibore Eſq; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Orford, High Steward of the ſaid Corporation.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,
We Your Maſteſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects humbly crave Leave to approach Your Maſteſty's Sacred Perſon, with Hearts full of Joy and Satisfaction, to give Your Maſteſty our ſigned Thanks for Your great Zeal in promoting and per- forming the moſt approved of Union between Your Kingdoms of England and Scotland. It is a Work of ſo great Conſequence, that it not only eſtabliſhes a firm and laſting Peace and Tranqui- lity between both Nations; but alſo adds ſuch Strength and is like a Bulwark to both, that we need not fear the Attempts of any Foreign Prince or Potentate whatſoever.

We cannot but with the greateſt Aſtoniſhment conſider that any ſuch diſmal Diſturbances and Devaſtations were of ancient Times, when both Kingdoms were ſeparate; and what Contrivances were ſet on foot, by Your Maſteſty's renowned Anceſtors, to prevent ſo great an Evil by a ſtrict Alliance by Marriage, which may be juſtly termed a temporal Union: The good Effect of which all Your Maſteſty's Subjects do at this Day enjoy, and, in the probability, to our great Grief, would have determined upon Your Maſteſty's Demiſe without Heirs of Your Maſteſty's Body.

Such Tranſactions as theſe (moſt Bleſſed Princeſſes) makes us not doubt that Your Maſteſty will likewiſe, by Your great Wiſdom, procure ſuch a Peace in Europe, that not only this, but future Ages, ſhall commemorate Your glorious Succeſſes, and ſet a Day apart to celebrate Your Sacred Name.

And that Your Maſteſty may have likewiſe as much Satisfaction as weing over us, as we have in Your Maſteſty's Government, as will on all Occaſions take ſuch Meaſures that may conduce to Your Maſteſty's great Ends and Intentions: And that there may be a perfect Harmony between Your Maſteſty and Your People, ſhall be our daily Prayers and Wiſhes. In Witneſs whereof we have hereunto put our Common Seal, the 11th Day of June, in the Sixth Year of Your Maſteſty's moſt auſpicious Reign.

The humble Adreſſes of the Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and other the Inhabitants, of the Borough of Malmesbury, in the County of Wilts: Preſented to Her Maſteſty by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Wharton.

May it pleaſe Your Maſteſty,
We Your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects beg Leave to make this our humble Application to Your Maſteſty, that we may (with ſo many others of our Fellow Subjects, who have already Adreſſed Your Maſteſty upon this Occaſion) teſtify the Satisfaction that we receive from the happy Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, which we cannot but be- lieve hath been reſerv'd by Almighty Providence as one of the glorious Inſtances of Your Maſteſty's Reign, and from which we doubt not but that both Nations will find theſe happy Effects which Your Maſteſty foreſaw and deſign'd in ſo great an Under- taking.

We ſhall always endeavour to ſhow that Senſe that we have of Your Maſteſty's great Wiſdom and Care upon this and all other Occaſions, by a conſtant, dutiful and loyal Subjection to Your Government; by avoiding all manner of Diviſions amongst our ſelves; by making Choice of ſuch Perſons of true Worth and Ho- nour to repreſent us (whenever Your Maſteſty's Affairs ſhall re- quire it) as ſhall be Zealous in Your Maſteſty's Service, of Reputa- tion to our ſelves, and of real Uſe to the Publick; and by our conſtant Prayers for the long Continuance of Your Maſteſty's happy Reign; and that You may never fail of Succeſs over all Your Enemies both at Home and Abroad.

In Witneſs whereof we have ſet our Corporation Seal.
The humble Adreſſes of the Biſhop and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Oxford: Preſented to Her Maſteſty by the Rt. Rev. Fa- ther in God, William Lord Biſhop of that Dioceſe; introduc- ed by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treafurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

Permit us, Madam, amongſt the reſt of Your dutiful and thank- ful Subjects, to congratulate Your Maſteſty, or rather Your Two Kingdoms, upon their happy Union. The Glory of theſe mighty Work is, next unto God, to be aſcribed to Your Maſteſty; but the Benefits of it redound to Your People.

Your Maſteſty was Queen of both Kingdoms before; and the Subjects of both being united in Your Maſteſty, could not want or deſire any Thing which God ſhould continue to them that Cement of their Union, the ineffable Bleſſing of Your Maſteſty's Liſe.

It is their future Security, when that Cement ſhall be diſſolved, that it is provided for by this Your Maſteſty's great and ſucceſs- ful Undertaking; which being ſo diſinterreſted, is the more glo- rious in it ſelf, and lays the ſtricter Obligations upon thoſe that are to reap the Advantages of it.

The Obligations we graſtfully own; and may our Poſterity late- ly enjoy the Advantages.

The humble Adreſſes of the Mayor, Steward, Jurats, Town- Clerk, Bayliffs, Chamberlain, and Free Burgeſſes, of the an- cient and loyal Corporation of Queenborough: Preſented to Her Maſteſty by Colonel Thomas King, one of their Repreſen- tatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

MAy it pleaſe Your moſt Sacred Maſteſty, to permit us to ap- pear among the Multitude of Your loyal Subjects, approach- ing Your Throne, with Adreſſes of Congratulation on the won- derful Succeſs of Your Councils and Your Arms; the Pride of France aſſwaged, and the Goodwill of Scotland ſecured: Trearily rendering Your ſelf as formidable in Your Wiſdom, as You have hitherto been glorious in Your Valour.

We humbly beg Leave to aſſure Your Maſteſty, that as we are rightly ſenſible of the Greatneſs of Your Accompliſhment in accom- pliſhing this Union of Your Kingdoms of England and Scotland, that it may be attended with all theſe advantageous Conſe- quences propoſed by Your Maſteſty, nothing ſhall be wanting on the Part of, may it pleaſe Your Maſteſty, Your Maſteſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

All which Adreſſes Her Maſteſty received very graciouſly.

Francfort, June 22. N. S. The Army commanded by Marſhal de Villars is decamped from Canſtat, and, by their Motion, ſup- poſed to march towards Ulm, being joined by the Detach- ments that were at Sturgard. They are laying together great Stores for a Magazine at Schoondorf, and building Ovens for the Supply of their Army with Bread. Their Parties ſpread themſelves through all the adjacent Countries, and make Excur- ſions as far as to the Danube, committing great Ravages among the People, or extorting Money from them for their Exemption. Laſt Week there were 4 Waggons ſent to Strasbourg, under a Guard of 450 Men, with Money that had been gathered in the Circle of Swabia; which are to be followed by others laden with the Contributions and Spoils of that Country. Theſe unexpected Advantages, though obtained without Op- poſition, have exalted the Enemy to an intupportable Vanity and Inſolence. The following Letter was lately written by the Marſhal de Villars to the Magiſtracy of Ulm, upon a diſputable Point, relating to ſome Prifoners in their Cuſtody.

S I R S,
I F my Mercy did not withhold my Juſtice, you ſhould before now have felt the Effects of it. I command You to ſend back, this very Inſtant, M. ſieur a' Angelo, and the other Priſoners, whom you unjuſtly detain contrary to the Treaty I made with your Deputies. If you fail doing it, expect to ſee all your Towns, Bourgois, and Villages, aſſailed by Fire and Sword. Do Juſtice on your ſelves, if you would ſcape my doing it.

The

The Empire is now thoroughly alarmed, and Reinforcements are marching from all Parts of it to the Imperial Army, which is entrenched at Jeckenheim, not far from Hail. We have also Reason to hope the Elector of Hanover will accept the Command which is offered him, and that the Saxon Troops in the Pay of Great Britain and Holland may be sent to our Assistance. Several Thousands of the Enemy appear'd lately before Heilbronn, in hopes that Place would have surrendered at their Approach; but the Garrison and Citizens being prepared for a vigorous Resistance, and firing upon them, they retired without any further Attempt. The Margrave of Barceith hath sent out Detachments to restrain the Incursions of the French Partisans, and hath given Orders to General Janus to post himself with a Body of Horse near Gemund, and observe the Motions of the Enemy. Some Battalions have marched out of Philipsbourg; but we know not on what Design. We hear that several of the Prussian and Hanover Troops are actually on their March to join the Margrave of Barceith. We want 3 Posts from Switzerland.

From the Camp at Meldert, June 27. N. S. On Friday last his Grace the Duke of Marlborough finish'd the Review of the Horse with the Second Line of the Left Wing, and had the Satisfaction to find them as good and compleat as those he had seen before. The same Day Mr. Mac-Queen, one of his Grace's Quarter-Masters, returning to the Camp with Forage, under a Guard of 25 Dragoons, met a Party of the Enemy, consisting of 30 Foot, who making a Disposition to attack our Men, the Dragoons advanc'd towards them, received their Fire, and kill'd 14, among whom was the Partisan who commanded, and brought in the rest Prisoners. On Saturday Signor Pisani, one of the late Ambassadors from the Republick of Venice to the Queen of Great Britain, came hither from Brussels to wait on his Grace; and having seen our Camp, proceeded on his Journey home by the way of Tirlmont. Orders are given for the Saxon Troops in the Pay of Her Majesty and the States General to march to the Upper Rhine, and join such other Forces of the Empire as are drawing together near Philipsbourg, in order to make a Diversion into the Enemy's Country.

Windsor, June 19. Her Majesty has been graciously pleas'd to confer the Dignity of a Baronet of Great Britain upon Sir Francis Dashwood, in Consideration of his known Loyalty and Affection for Her Majesty's Person and Government.

The Masters, Wardens and Assistants, of Trinity-Houls of Deptford-Strond give Notice to all Masters and Pilots of Ships, That (for the Good of Navigation) they have lately removed the Buoy that laid on the Middle of the Sand called the Mouse, to the South-West End of the said Sand; and that it lies in 3 Fathoms at low Water, bearing nearest South-West from the Shoal-Beacon.

By the Receiver-General for Prizes. Notice is hereby given, That the Officers and Company of Her Majesty's Ship Worcester will, on Thursday the 3d of July next, be paid their Proportions of the Prize Ship Catherine of Havredgrace; according to the Directions in Her Majesty's most Gracious Declaration for the Encouragement of Her Ships of War, &c.
