MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

(Navy Department)

Whitehall, London S.W.1.

22nd June 1965.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to approve the following awards for gallant and distinguished services in operations in the Borneo Territories, and in supporting operations, during the period 24th June 1964 to 23rd December 1964:

The Military Cross

Lieutenant Robert Alan Mountcastle SEEGER, Royal Marines.

On 8th December 1964, Lieutenant Seeger was leading a patrol in the area of the Border on the West Coast of Sebatik Island, Tawau, Sabah. The patrol was operating from rubber boats, and shortly after landing on a beach near the Border Lieutenant Seeger and the leading men of the patrol came under heavy fire, at close range, from an enemy automatic weapon.

Lieutenant Seeger was wounded in the right arm and knocked to the ground. Instantly he regained his feet and rushed the enemy position firing his sub-machine gun and shouting orders to his patrol. The automatic fire ceased and Lieutenant Seeger cleared the immediate area with grenades. He then led the assault group of his patrol through the enemy position under covering fire from the support group. This manoeuvre accounted for three enemy killed and these were later identified as Indonesian Marines.

Having cleared the area he withdrew his patrol to the boats, re-embarked and moved out of the area.

Throughout the action Lieutenant Seeger demonstrated leadership of the highest quality, and his presence of mind, calmness, decision and inspiration whilst under fire resulted in a very competent tactical action. The ability of the patrol to react quickly when surprised reflected the thorough preparation and training which he had carried out with his men beforehand.

In October, Lieutenant Seeger led a long reconnaissance patrol through extremely difficult country. This resulted in very valuable information and was the result of leadership and skill of a very high order.

Mention in Despatches

Engineer Sub Lt. William James Milne PARNELL, Royal Navy.

Engineer Sub Lt. Richard Ernest VAN KEMPEN, Royal Navy.

Colour Sergeant Kenneth BYRNE, Royal Marines, PL/X 5599.

Sergeant William George COSTLEY, Royal Marines, RM 12204.

Corporal Kenneth James TOMLIN, Royal Marines, R.M. 19480.

CROWN OFFICE

House of Lords, London S.W.1.

22nd June 1965.

The QUEEN has been pleased by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the Realm, bearing date the 22nd day of June 1965, to confer the dignity of a Barony of the United Kingdom for life upon Sir Harold Roxbee Cox, Knight, by the name, style and title of BARON KINGS NORTON, of Wotton Underwood in the county of Buckingham.

DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMIC AFFAIRS

REFERENCE TO THE NATIONAL BOARD FOR PRICES AND INCOMES

Clerical and Administrative Workers in the Electricity Supply Industry

Early in 1964 a three year agreement was concluded on behalf of clerical and administrative workers in the electricity supply industry providing for increases in salary scales in January 1964, January 1965 and January 1966. Subsequently agreements were reached in the industry providing for improvements and adjustments in pay and conditions for industrial and technical staff. These were related to such factors as trade union co-operation in improving efficiency, the operation of new work rotas and the reduction of overtime.

A dispute has now arisen over the pay and conditions appropriate to clerical and administrative staff in the industry in relation to other groups of workers. The Government consider it desirable in the national interest for the issues arising to be investigated by the National Board for Prices and Incomes and the Board are accordingly requested to make such an investigation.

16th June 1965.

Salaries of Midland Bank Staff

Negotiations have recently taken place between the Midland Bank and the Midland Bank Staff Association resulting in a general increase of 5 per cent. in staff salaries with effect from 1st January 1965, further improvements in the published scales applying to some of the younger staff to take effect from September 1965 and some improvement in the holiday arrangements for certain sections of the staff.

Bank staffs form an important group of salaried workers and in the past settlements reached by one of the Clearing Banks have had repercussions on the remainder. There is also the question of the effect of salary increases on banking costs and the charges to the customer. The Government consider it desirable for this agreement and its implications to be investigated in the light of the considerations set out in paragraphs 9-15 of "General Considerations Relating to Prices and Incomes" (Part 1 of the White Paper on Prices and Incomes Policy, Cmnd. 2639).

The National Board for Prices and Incomes is requested to examine and report on these matters in accordance with its terms of reference.

17th June 1965.

London Electricity Board Tariffs

On 2nd June 1965, the London Electricity Board announced that it was necessary for them to increase their tariffs from 1st July. On the same day the London Electricity Consultative Council, who had been consulted by the London Electricity Board before announcing these increases, issued a statement making known the view of the majority of the Members that they should be opposed.

The average increase for all consumers is slightly less than 11 per cent.

In the circumstances the Government think it important in the national interest that these tariff increases should be examined by the National Board for Prices and Incomes with particular reference to increases in cost within the control of the London

Electricity Board and the extent to which unavoidable extra costs can be absorbed by greater efficiency.

The Board are accordingly requested to put in hand the necessary enquiries.
