State Intelligence

Clarence House, S.W.1.

20th August 1965.

QUEEN ELIZABETH THE QUEEN MOTHER has been pleased to appoint Major the Right Honourable Simon, Earl of Dalhousie, G.B.E., M.C., to be Lord Chamberlain to Her Majesty, in the room of Lieutenant-Colonel the Right Honourable David Lyulph Gore Wolseley, Earl of Airlie, K.T., G.C.V.O., M.C., resigned.

The appointment to date from Monday, 2nd August 1965.

A. J. Galpin.

in the air pocket in the ship, they were forced to come to the surface. After being revived, they unhesitatingly returned to their underwater task until all hope of locating further survivors was abandoned. Lockley, Garrick and Webb, who are amateur skin divers, volunteered to help as soon as they heard of the disaster, and were at the scene early. Without consideration for their own safety in the perilous conditions, they gave material assistance throughout the day by searching inside the vessel for survivors. They recovered some bodies.

HONOURS AND AWARDS

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD

St. James's Palace, London S.W.1.

20th August 1965.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased, on the advice of Her Majesty's Australian Ministers, to give orders for the undermentioned awards of the George Medal and the British Empire Medal.

Awarded the George Medal:

Ivan James Adams, Senior Constable, Queensland Police Force. (Water Police.)

Joseph Engwirda, Volunteer Aqua Lung Diver, South Brisbane.

Awarded the British Empire Medal for Gallantry, (Civil Division):

Neville Garrick, Volunteer Skin Diver, St. Lucia.

Ian Lockley, Volunteer Skin Diver, St. Lucia.

Robert Webb, Volunteer Skin Diver, Carina.

The Danish dredge, "Kaptajn Nielsen", overturned in Moreton Bay, without warning, trapping the crew, who were on the bridge or below deck, in about 35 feet of water. Some of the crew members were trapped in an air lock in the area of their cabins. The alarm was raised and an intensive search and rescue operation organised. Senior Constable Adams and Engwirda were the first of the volunteer aqua-lung divers to arrive at the scene. These two men, in order to save time, did not put on diving suits, but donned aqua-lungs and, without thought of their personal safety, immediately dived into the murky waters seeking entry into the sunken dredge. After great difficulty, they found openings into the vessel and between them eventually brought to the surface twelve survivors. They also recovered some bodies. During the operation, both divers worked heroically until, partially overcome by the foul air
