From the Imperial Camp at Ettingen, October 10. N. S. The several Deputies of the Imperial Circles having attended the Elector of Hanover in a Conference, his Electoral Highness was pleas'd to lay before them the following Propositions:

I. That effectual Care be taken, That the whole Body of the Troops be quarter'd, as near as possible to the present Camp for the ensuing Winter, and by that means lie in a readiness to oppose any new Irruption of the Enemy.

II. That the Circles provide for that End, Quarters, Subistence, and Forrage; and make necessary Magazines for the Service of the next Year; by the want of which they have suffer'd great Inconveniences this last Campaign.

III. That they would immediately go into Methods for throwing up new Lines in as many Places as shall appear necessary; for which his Electoral Highness desires to be furnish'd with 4000 Pioneers, who may lie ready with proper Instruments to work on the aforesaid Lines in the Winter Season, whenever the Weather will permit.

IV. That the Circles would please to provide, at their own Expence, Forage for the Saxon Troops; as also for a Regiment of Horse belonging to his Prussian Majesty; a Regiment of the Duke of Wolfenbuttel; a Regiment of Foot of the Bishop of Munster; One Regiment of Foot, and Two of Horse, of his Electoral Highness: All which Troops being sent in by their respective Princes, besides their appointed Quota, it is thought reasonable that they should be subsisted at the Expence of the Circles. His Electoral Highness is sensible that the Circles have already agreed to this Article; but their Methods of Supply having prov'd deficient, he offers to their Consideration, Whether it would not be a good Expedient to appropriate for that Service part of the Tax call'd the Roman Months.

V. That the Circles Contract with Persons capable of furnishing the Army for the future with Forage and Provisions at a reasonable Rate.

VI. His Electoral Highness earnestly recommends to the Circles, That the Recruits of each Circle may be rais'd with such Expedition, as to pass in review in February next, at farthest, and that all the Regiments may be compleat at that time, it being of the last Importance that the opening of the next Campaign may be early in the Year.

VII. His Electoral Highness presses the Circles, in regard to their common Safety, to furnish the Chest or Bank for the War with 100000 Rix-dollars above their Quota; the said Bank being at present in a very low Condition.

The Dutch Mail of Friday last is not yet come in.

These are to give Notice, That the Paymaster of the Interest on the Registered Debentures hath Money sufficient in his Hands to compleat Three Years and Three Quarters Interest on such Debentures as have been Registered by him; And that all Persons to whom any thing is due to compleat Three Years and Three Quarters upon the said Registered Debentures, may come and receive the same at the said Paymaster's Office at the Exchequer on demand.

Whereas a Letter dated the 12th Instant, and signed V. M. hath been sent to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs at the Custom-house in London, tending to a Discovery of Frauds, and a Correspondence prejudicial to that Revenue: If the Persons concern'd will attend the said Commissioners, and make Proofs thereof, they shall have all fitting Encouragement.
