TREASURY

Treasury Chambers,
Great George Street, London S.W.1.

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that They have made an Order under section 3 (6) and 13 of the Import Duties Act 1958, viz.

The Import Duties (Temporary Exemptions) (No. 7) Order 1965.

The First Schedule to the Order provides:

(a) for the extension until 31st December 1966 (except where some other date is shown) of temporary exemptions from import duty of certain goods (mainly chemicals) which would otherwise have expired on 31st December 1965. Included are items which appear under a revised description and these are marked with a dagger, and

(b) for the temporary exemption from import duty from 31st December 1965 until 31st December 1966, except where some other date is shown) of certain goods (mainly chemicals) at present liable to import duty. These items are marked with an asterisk.

The Second Schedule to the Order lists the items marked with a dagger in the First Schedule and shows the corresponding descriptions under which the exemption from import duty is currently allowed.

The Order comes into operation on the 31st December 1965 and has been published as Statutory Instruments 1965 No. 2099.

Copies may be purchased (price 3s. 6d. net) direct from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, at the addresses shown on the last page of this Gazette or from any bookseller.

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that they have made an Order under section 7 of the Finance (No. 2) Act 1964, viz.:

Export Rebates (United Kingdom Production and Manufacture) Order 1965.

This Order provides that goods shall be treated for export rebate purposes as produced or manufactured in the United Kingdom.

(i) in the generality of cases if not less than 20 per cent. of the costs of their production or manufacture is attributable to United Kingdom expenditure (certain costs being specified which are to be included in and excluded or deducted from these costs respectively for the purpose of deciding what proportion of them is so attributable), or

(ii) in the case of wool tops if they have been combed or carded in the United Kingdom.

The Order revokes the provisions of the Export Rebates Order 1965 as to what goods shall be treated for export rebate purposes as produced or manufactured in the United Kingdom, and other extant provisions of that Order, except as respects wool tops exported before 1st October 1965 and other goods exported before 1st January 1966.

The Order comes into operation on the 1st January 1966 and has been published as Statutory Instruments 1965 No. 2120.

Copies may be purchased (price 6d. net) direct from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, at the addresses shown on the last page of this Gazette or from any bookseller.
