COPYRIGHT ACT, 1956

Performing Right Tribunal,
Chancery House,
53-64 Chancery Lane,
London W.C.2.

PERFORMING RIGHT TRIBUNAL

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to Rule 5 of the Performing Right Tribunal Rules, 1965, of a reference to the Tribunal under section 25 of the Copyright Act, 1956, by the Ice Rinks Association, whose address is Sportsdrome, Limited, Clevedon Road, East Twickenham, Middlesex (hereinafter called "the originator"). A copy of the notice of reference has been served on the Performing Right Society, Limited, of 29-33 Berners Street, London W.1 (hereinafter called "the licensing body"). For the purpose of calculating the period of 42 days referred to in Rule 9 of the Rules, such service is deemed to have been effected on the 30th March 1966.

The reference concerns a dispute with regard to a licensing scheme, operated by the licensing body, and known as Standard Tariff IR, under which it grants licences for the performance of music on premises containing ice rinks.

The originator states that it is an association of proprietors and operators of about eighteen ice skating rinks in England, and that its purpose is to safeguard the interests of its members.

The originator alleges that the licensing scheme is unreasonable, in that it requires a licensee to disclose either his actual gross annual takings or the actual annual attendances at the licensed premises; that the rate of royalty required is excessive; that the method of calculating the royalty payable in respect of season ticket holders is arbitrary; that the requirement of certification by an accountant of returns under the scheme is unreasonable; and that a licensee should not be required to pay the licence fee for a year in advance.

Any organisation or person wishing to object to the credentials of the originator, or to be made a party to the proceedings, must make application for the purpose in the manner prescribed by the Performing Right Tribunal Rules, 1965, not later than the 21st May 1966.

(2010) H. W. Clarke, Secretary.

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to Rule 5 of the Performing Right Tribunal Rules, 1965, of a reference to the Tribunal under section 25 of the Copyright Act, 1956, by the Theatres' National Committee, of Faraday House, 8-10 Charing Cross Road, London W.C.2 (hereinafter called "the originator"). A copy of the notice of reference has been served on the Performing Right Society, Limited, of 29-33 Berners Street, London W.1 (hereinafter called "the licensing body"). For the purpose of calculating the period of 42 days referred to in Rule 9 of the Rules, such service is deemed to have been effected on the 6th April 1966.

The reference concerns a dispute with regard to a licensing scheme, operated by the licensing body, under which it grants licences for the performance of music at variety shows, revues, concert parties, pantomimes, musical shows and musical revues, in accordance with certain tariffs which apply to such performances.

The originator states that it is an organisation claiming to be representative of persons requiring licences in cases to which the scheme applies.

The originator alleges that the licensing scheme is unreasonable in that the licensing body has introduced three different tariffs, known as Tariff V, VA and VB respectively, to replace a single tariff (the said Tariff V) which previously governed performances of the types in question, and which was considered satisfactory in operation. The single tariff was agreed in 1963, after lengthy negotiations between the originator and the licensing body, and the originator contends that it is undesirable and unreasonable to alter a negotiated tariff after such a short time.

Any organisation or person wishing to object to the credentials of the originator, or to be made a party to the proceedings, must make application for the purpose in the manner prescribed by the Performing Right Tribunal Rules, 1965, not later than the 28th May 1966.
