MINISTRY OF POWER

MINES AND QUARRIES ACT 1954

Draft Coal and Other Mines (Managers and Officials) (Variation) Regulations 1966

The Minister of Power, in accordance with the provisions of section 142 of the Mines and Quarries Act 1954, and of Part I of the Second Schedule thereto, hereby gives notice that he proposes to make General Regulations under sections 141 and 143 of the Act which will be entitled "The Coal and Other Mines (Managers and Officials) (Variation) Regulations 1966".

These Regulations will apply to mines of coal, stratified ironstone, shale and fireclay. They will vary the Coal and Other Mines (Managers and Officials) Regulations 1956, as previously varied (The Coal and Other Mines (Managers and Officials) (Variation) Regulations 1961, 1962 and 1963), in the following respects:

- (1) They provide that deputies, underground officials superior to deputies but inferior to managers and under-managers, other persons who carry out pre-shift inspections, and persons appointed to carry out inspections of places in a mine not comprised in any deputy's district (all of whom are required to be qualified as deputies) must have a qualification which is valid with respect to the mine at which they are so appointed. The purpose of this variation is to enable the Minister to approve new Rules proposed by the Mining Qualifications Board which will introduce a written examination for applicants for a deputy's certificate valid for safety lamp coalmines. It will also provide for a limited deputy's certificate, valid only for mines of stratified ironstone, shale and fireclay, and for the few remaining naked light coalmines, for which the qualifications will be simply the existing oral and practical tests.
- (2) The different periods of practical experience as a deputy required under Regulation 7 (b) of the 1956 Regulations before a qualification can be obtained for appointment as an underground official superior to a deputy and inferior to the manager or under-manager will now be one year in all cases.

Copies of the draft Regulations may be purchased (price 5d. net from Her Majesty's Stationery Office) at any of the addresses shown on the last page of this Gazette.

Any objection to the draft Regulations by, or on behalf of any person affected thereby must be sent to the Minister of Power, Thames House South, Millbank, London S.W.1, before 8th July 1966. Each such objection must be made in writing and must state:

- (a) the specific ground for objection; and
- (b) the omissions, additions or modifications asked for.

Alfred M. Rake, An Under Secretary to the Ministry of Power.

14th June 1966.

Thames House South,
Millbank, London S.W.1.

8th June 1966.
