

hop'd he should succeed. His Majesty, at the Solicitation of the Court of Hanover, has directed his Ministers at Ratisbon to give their Voice, and use their utmost Application in the Imperial Diet, that a Protestant Family be nam'd to succeed to that Electorate, in case the House of Hanover should be extinct.

Hague, Jan. 27. N. S. The States of Holland have pass'd the Tax of the Two Hundredth Penny, and adjourn'd for 15 Days. The Deputies from the Brille, who made the greatest Opposition in the Affair, were prevail'd upon to consent to the passing of that Act by a Promise of the Assembly. That all imaginable Care should be taken to find out a more easy Method of supplying the Government for the future. At the same time it was resolv'd to borrow a further Sum of Four Millions of Florins on the Credit of other Funds, for carrying on the Service of the ensuing Campaign. The Loan demand'd by the Circle of Swabia was also taken into Consideration; and the States have consented to lend the Sum demanded on the Security which is offer'd. Our last Letters from the Upper Rhine advise, That the Marshal de Villars had drawn together 30000 Men near Huningen, who are quarter'd in the Neighbourhood of Colmar: He has order'd another great Body to hover near the Frontiers of the Franche Comté. French Letters say, The Duke of Berwick is arriv'd at Valencia; and that the Marquis de Bay had left Madrid, in order to return to Estramadura. They write from Switzerland, That the Canton of Berne had receiv'd a Letter from the French King on the 17th Instant, wherein he acquaints them, That he had order'd his Ambassador to propose to the Diet the Sequestration of the Principality of Neuchâtel into the Hands of the 13 Cantons. The Ambassador had not at the Time of the Dispatch of this Advice made that Proposal; but the Canton sent immediate Orders to their Deputies at the Diet to oppose all Attempts against the Right of his Majesty of Prussia. Mr. Stranyan, the British Envoy, has also writ to the Protestant Cantons, and laid before them, in a Memorial, the Danger to which they must expose their Religion and Liberty, if they should comply with that specious Expedient of their Enemy.

Plimouth, Jan. 15. Yesterday was forc'd in here by stress of Weather Her Majesty's Ship the Kingale, being the Convoy of a Fleet bound from Lisbon to Oporto, and separated from them the first Instant by bad Weather. This Day put in the Alican Galee of and from London, Peter Wall Maister, with some Foreign Vessels bound for Bourdeaux.
