HONOURS AND AWARDS

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD

St. James's Palace, London S.W.1.

19th August 1966.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased on the advice of Her Majesty's Australian Ministers, to give orders for the undermentioned award of the British Empire Medal.

Awarded the British Empire Medal for Gallantry (Civil Division)

(To be dated 18th August 1966.)

George Patrick CONNOLLY, Seaman, m.v. "Cape Don", Fremantle, Western Australia.

A motor launch, 14 feet in length, used to transport men and materials to and from the lighthouse vessel m.v. "Cape Don" and shore stations, was returning to the vessel from Adele Island when it ran into rough seas and sank. To reach the "Cape Don" it had to negotiate some difficult reefs and to travel about four miles heavily loaded with equipment used by the working party and with seven men aboard. The First Mate, who was in charge of the launch, was unable to swim. After the launch sank he was supported in the water by Seaman Connolly until help arrived. It was a feat of endurance and self sacrifice for the waters around Adele Island, which is located off the north-west coast of Western Australia, are notorious for the prevalence of sharks.
