1967) will, upon application by the holder, be repayable at the rate of £103 per £100 on 15th February 1967, unless the holders accept an offer of conversion into 5½% National Development Bonds (First Conversion Issue). Interest on these 5% Defence Bonds will not be paid in respect of periods after 15th February 1967.

Holders of the 5% Defence Bonds concerned will be invited to exchange their holdings, in whole or in part in multiples of £5, into 5½% National Development Bonds (First Conversion Issue) on 15th February 1967 at the rate of £5 of such Bonds for each £5 of Bonds tendered. Acceptance of the offer of conversion will not involve any break in the holder's encashment rights. Holders who accept the conversion offer will receive on 15th February 1967 the final interest payment, at £5% per annum for the period 15th August 1966 to 14th February 1967, together with the maturity premium of £3% on Bonds exchanged.

The terms of the new First Conversion Issue Bonds will be the same as those of the 5½% National Development Bonds (First Issue) currently on sale except that interest will be payable on 1st March and 1st September. The full conversion terms will be given in the Prospectus and Notice which will be dispatched to holders, or in the case of joint holdings the first named holder, on 30th September 1966, together with the form of request for conversion, and a form of application for repayment for the use of holders who do not accept the conversion offer.
