

PRIVY COUNCIL OFFICE

At the Court at Balmoral the 5th day of October 1966.

PRESENT,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by the Burial Act, 1855 (1855 c. 128), it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the 7th day of March 1887 (hereinafter referred to as "the Order of 1887") directing the discontinuance of burials, in, amongst other places, the Parish Churchyard of Speen, in the County of Berks:

And whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the Order of 1887 in so far as it affects burials in the said Parish Churchyard of Speen, should be varied:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. The Order of 1887 shall have effect subject to the following exception or qualification, viz.:—

That, notwithstanding anything in the Order of 1887, burials may be allowed in the said Churchyard in the areas of the two disused footpaths shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto.

2. The Interpretation Act, 1889 (1889 c. 63), shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. This Order may be cited as the Burial Grounds (Speen) (Variation) Order, 1966.

W. G. Agnew.

The Plan referred to in the foregoing Order in Council
