PRICES AND INCOMES ACT, 1966

Reference to the National Board for Prices and Incomes Pay of Manual Workers in Local Authorities in Scotland.

1. The pay of manual workers in the Scottish local authority service has in the past been closely related to that of similar manual workers employed by local authorities in England and Wales and in the gas and water supply industries. In view of these relationships and the fact that other relevant agreements in the public sector (i.e. local authority manual workers in England and Wales, manual workers in the gas and water supply industries and ancillary workers in the National Health Service) have been referred for examination by the National Board for Prices and Incomes, the Government consider it desirable that the Board should also examine the pay and conditions of service of manual workers in the local authority services in Scotland, and report on the principles for determining these concurrently with its examination of the other groups already referred to.

2. Subject to the views of the Government as to the date of implementation, a two-year pay agreement has been provisionally concluded by the National Joint Industrial Council for Local Authority Services in Scotland for manual workers employed by Scottish local authorities (including those employed on water supply). This would provide for general increases for full-time adult male workers of 22s. 6d. a week, to be paid in two instalments (a) one of 12s. 6d. a week at the outset and (b) a further instalment of 10s. a week twelve months thereafter. The last general pay increase was effective from 15th November 1965, and included a reduction in the normal working week.

3. In pursuance of their powers under section 2 (1) of the Prices and Incomes Act, 1966, the First Secretary of State and the Secretary of State for Scotland hereby refer to the National Board for Prices and Incomes for examination the pay and conditions of service, and the principles for determining these, of manual workers in local authority services in Scotland.
