

to nine tenths of the terminal grant to which he would have been entitled on the day of his death.

(ii) If, had he been invalided on the day he died, he was not eligible for a terminal grant, his widow may be paid a gratuity in accordance with the following scale:

Less than 4 years' service	£120
4 years' service	£140
5 years' service	£165
6 years' service	£190
7 years' service	£215
8 years' service	£235
9 years' service	£260
10 years' service	£285
11 years' service	£310

Thence by increments of £25 for each additional year of service which would have been counted for service gratuity.

25. Where, had the Officer or seaman or marine been invalided, an adjustment would have been made to his award in respect of gratuity or other non-effective payment previously received by him, an abatement may be made on that account in assessing the gratuity payable under Clause 23 or 24.

26. Where the Officer or seaman or marine did not leave a widow eligible for an award under this section but a child or children (as defined in Clause 20, and fulfilling the conditions of that Clause), the Defence Council may at its discretion award a gratuity to the child or children or to any of them. The total award shall not exceed that which would have been payable to a widow eligible for an award under this section and the award to any one child shall not exceed one third of that amount.

27. Where the Officer or seaman or marine leaves a widow and in addition a child or children (as defined in Clause 20 and fulfilling the conditions of that Clause), who are not living with or supported by her, the Defence Council may divert a sum of not more than one third of the gratuity which would normally be payable to the widow for the benefit of all or any of such children.

28. Where a woman member dies in circumstances, in which the child of a male member would have been granted a gratuity under Clause 26 above and leaves a child or children (as defined in Clause 20 and fulfilling the conditions of that Clause), the Defence Council may award a gratuity for the benefit of the child or children of such amount as it may determine.

29. Gratuities in respect of children may be issued to the widow or mother of the child, or other person responsible for the child's maintenance, or to the child direct, as may be decided. They may where appropriate be issued in instalments, or withheld for later payment.

30. Gratuities under this Section shall not be subject to abatement in respect of any Naval debt due from the deceased Officer or seaman or marine, other than any abatement due under Clause 25.
